2012-2013 Annual Grants Program Awards

Applicant	Award Amount	Project Description
About Productions	$ 6,000	Production of a touring version of "Evangeline"
Alanna Simone	$ 1,700	MIA (Moving Image Art), a curated, monthly selection of video art and experimental film shown at Armory Center, emphasizing work from under-represented communities
Armory Center for the Arts	$ 7,500	"Artful Connections with Math," a pilot visual arts/math integrated curriculum for fourth graders in Pasadena public schools
Bia Gayotto	$ 3,000	Two-channel video installation “Two Places at Once,” investigating bi-life in Pasadena
Danza Floricanto	$ 3,400	Presentations of dance vignettes celebrating Dia De Los Muertos at A Room to Create Pasadena
David P. Earle	$ 2,400	Interactive exhibit "Double Play," featuring intricate, hand-cut wood puzzles that studio visitors will use to create sculpture collages
Indelible Ink	$ 4,500	Literary and cultural performance art series and student performance scholar competition
Kidspace	$ 6,000	Free Family Nights with cultural and artistic performances and workshops
Latino Arts Network	$ 3,000	Free poetry reading by California Poet Laureate, Juan Felipe Herrera
Light Bringer Project	$ 7,500	2013 Pasadena Chalk Festival: chalk murals will cover the first and second floors of the Paseo Colorado
Lineage Dance	$ 7,500	6th annual Pasadena Dance Festival, a week-long event dedicated to providing access to dance performance and education
Litfest	$ 6,000	Free, one-day literary festival in Pasadena's Central Park
Los Angeles Children's Chorus	$ 3,400	Teacher training and work with 2 to 3 local elementary schools to offer the " First Experiences in Singing" program
New Town Pasadena	$ 6,000	The Hugely Tiny Festival: A Nano/Micro Redux Spectacle celebrates smallness through visual, performing, and mixed-media arts
Norooz of Pasadena with Farhang Foundation	$ 3,400	7th annual Norooz Celebration (Iranian New Year), a free, 2-hour, public event sharing Iran's rich art and culture tradition
Pacific Asia Museum	$ 7,500	"Art of Korea" exhibit with pieces drawn from Pacific Asia Museum collection
Parson's Nose	$ 3,400	Nine performances of Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tales at Lineage Performing Arts Center
Pasadena Arts Council	$ 7,500	Support for marketing and outreach of the Capital AxS Festival 2013, "Curiosity," will increase participation in exhibitions, performances, conversations, and educational events at multiple venues
Pasadena Community Orchestra	$ 4,454	2012-2013 Young Artist Competition and Winner's Concert

Pasadena Conservatory of Music	$ 6,000	32 weeks of sequential music education through the Young Musicians' Program at Jefferson Elementary
Pasadena Museum of California Art	$ 7,500	"Jessica Rath: Take Me to the Apple Breeder," a two- and three-dimensional visual art exhibition that explores the scientific and ethical issues behind food sources and consumerism rooted in the apple industry
Pasadena Promusica	$ 3,400	Pasadena Schubertiade, an eight-day festival focused on Schubert's music
Pasadena Summer Youth Cham. Orch. (PSYCO)	$ 3,840	2012 Memorial Park concert and 2013 Young Artist Concert
Pasadena Symphony Association	$ 6,000	"Random Acts of Music," concerts that use diverse, non-traditional spaces to engage those Pasadena residents traditionally under-served by classical music organizations
Pennington Dance Group (A Room to Create Pasadena)	$ 6,000	Movement, Education and Outreach Workshops (MEOW), a free dance series that includes lectures, informal showings of dance works in progress, and workshops for families that promote movement and nonverbal communication
Red Hen Press	$ 3,400	Literary Readings at the Theatre at Boston Court, Armory Center, Vroman's, and Red Hen Press office
Side Street Projects	$ 6,000	"Listening," by Elana Mann, site-specific, interactive sound sculptures and community-based performance events
The Theatre at Boston Court	$ 3,000	“Illuminations,” a series of 24 community discussions on the social, political and spiritual topics raised by main stage productions