2013-14 Pasadena Annual Grants Program - Partial Funding Awarded

Applicant	Grant Category	Recommended Award	Project/Program Summary
A Noise Within	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	Artist fees for 2013-14 Season at A Noise Within
About Productions	Arts & Culture I	$ 6,500	About Productions will conduct Young Theaterworks Presents at two PUSD schools (Blair International Baccalaureate and Marshal High schools). "These Walls Tell Stories" a play written by high school students about Chicano muralists they interviewed. The program includes: 4 staged readings, 4 workshops and 2 writing/theater arts workshops.
Armory Center for the Arts	Arts Education Partnership	$ 8,000	In-class delivery of Artful Connections with Math - visual arts/math integrated curriculum for 4th graders.
Blue Milagro	Festivals & Parades	$ 8,000	5th Dia de los Muertos festival 10/25/13 - Blue Milagro will transform the Pasadena Playhouse courtyard with artist-design altars, traditional Oxacan decoration, music, puppet shows, story-telling theater, art workshops, papel picado demonstrations and authentic Mexican food. Student-designed altars will be displayed at a location on same block.
Danza Floricanto	Arts & Culture I	$ 5,145	Fiesta de Cinco de Mayo at ARC Pasadena on May 3 & 4, 2014 - live music and dance concert in partnership with ARC Pasadena, Pasadena Latino Heritage and El Centro de Accion Social
Jonathan Josephson	Individual Artist	$ 3,250	Development of Mystery Lit - a new play set in the City of Pasadena
Just Kibbe	Individual Artist	$ 1,700	Cross-genre, mixed media, multi-language translation project that poetry, arts, deaf and blind community
Katya Khan	Individual Artist	$ 3,250	Outdoor installation of sculptural elements derived from manipulated natural landscape, textile and salvaged materials - developed with community collaboration at Side Street Projects
Latino Arts Network	Arts & Culture I	$ 3,400	Out of the Parade: Latinos/Film/Baseball, a 3-night series of film screenings, poetry and art exhibition which explore themes that reflect the identity of the Latino community through the prism of the art and culture of baseball.
Light Bringer	Festivals & Parades	$ 8,000	2014 Pasadena Chalk Festival - June 15 & 16, 2014

Applicant	Grant Category	Recommended Award	Project/Program Summary
Lineage Dance Company	Festivals & Parades	$ 8,000	7th Annual Pasadena Dance Festival
LitFest Pasadena	Festivals & Parades	$ 6,000	Community Literary Festival in Pasadena's Central Park, May 2014
Los Angeles Children's Chorus	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	2013-14 Los Angeles Children's Chorus educational and performance season in Pasadena. Choral music training for Pasadena-area teens and pre-teens; educational outreach to underserved children in PUSD schools, free and low-cost concerts.
Maggie Hazen	Individual Artist	$ 4,000	Free-standing sculpture displaying a miniature, industrial city composed of found and assembled utilitarian objects at Central Library and later as part of a workshop at Side Street Projects
Musique	Arts & Culture III	$ 3,000	Uncorked - a yearly collection of live music and orchestra events aimed at animating our civic environment
Open Gate Theater	Arts & Culture I	$ 3,400	The Crossing: a multi-media opera with vocal, sculptural, jazz improvisation, instrumental, and video elements to be performed in Pasadena.
Parson's Nose	Arts & Culture I	$ 6,500	Nine performances of family-friendly, one-hour adaptation of Moliere's "The Middle Class Nobleman," adapted by Lance Davis and performed at Lineage Performing Arts Center.
Pasadena Community Orchestra	Arts & Culture I	$ 4,951	Funding for PCO's Young Artist Competition and Winner's Concert
Pasadena Conservatory of Music	Arts Education Partnership	$ 6,500	Young Musicians Program at Jefferson Elementary: 32 weeks of sequential, standards-based music curriculum every year.
Pasadena Museum of California Art	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	The exhibition "Picturing Mexico: Alfredo Ramoz Martinez in California" explores the work of the influential Mexican-born painter. Exhibit includes 50 drawings and paintings and a reproduction of a mural. Related educational material explores ties between Mexico, Latin American, LA and California.
Pasadena Museum of History	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	The exhibition "Kites, Wings and Other Flying things: Pasadena's History of Flight through Science, Art & Design" will marry artist-designed kites with a timeline of flight in Pasadena.

Applicant	Grant Category	Recommended Award	Project/Program Summary
Pasadena Playhouse	Arts & Culture III	$ 3,400	GREENHOUSE at The Playhouse: hands-on training and experience for upcoming playwrights, directors and stage managers studying at USC
Pasadena Symphony Association	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	Random Acts of Music, a new program that will use diverse, non-traditional spaces for arts engagement. Focus will be on serving ethnically diverse Pasadena residents, traditionally underserved by classical music organizations
Red Hen Press	Arts & Culture III	$ 6,000	Five (5) literary events to be held at Armory Center for the Arts (free) and Boston Court ($5-10) and five (5) writing workshops at Cleveland Elementary (a PUSD school). Funding will support artist honoraria, promotion and staff related to the events.
Shumei	Arts & Culture I	$ 6,500	Funding for bus transportation and artistic fees for PUSD students to attend three (3) concerts (2 are children's concerts) to be performed at Shumei Arts Council of America.
Side Street Projects	Arts Education Partnership	$ 3,400	Wood working classes for 3rd graders in PUSD elementary schools - part of My Masterpieces Program
The Theatre @ Boston Ct	Arts & Culture III	$ 3,600	Illuminations: a series of 24 community-based discussions on the social, political and spiritual topics raised by their main stage productions; endeavors to include all members of the community.