Hello,

I'm seeking information on the meeting this Wednesday, July 8th. (Beyond what's on the website) Where do I email public comments? During the Online meeting, will there be breakout groups to address questions and submit feedback?

I've just read the Guest opinion of Felicia Williams in the news "Pasadena Now", calling for transparency.

Please share and or forward this email to her.

I'm a 64 year old grandmother with five generations in this community.

For the past five years I have attended and participated in Public comments during city council meetings and school board meetings.

I worked on the $15 wage campaign. (POP!)

What's occurring is unacceptable, secret meetings, abuse of power, a budget that doesn't represent the values of the working families of Pasadena, and the massive gentrification increasing the rate of evictions.

I don't feel safe with the lack of medical care, mental healthcare, and continued support of the status quo. Our local government must learn that the days of changes and reforms in small increments is dead and gone.

I demand rebuilding, restructuring, reimagining of a community that is sustainable. I demand action now, not delayed, not "let's have a study session and look into that". It is so obvious, and condescending to witness the behaviors/comments of city council members who are stuck in their corrupt ways.

I hope you have the courage that these tough times are demanding. We must confront the few wealthy whom have power in their grasp and won't let go. We are voting for women and people of color (AOC and Jamaal Bowman) and we the grassroots progressives will be relentless in our pursuit of racial justice, and environmental justice.

I hope to meet you at a meeting online. Thank you for your service.

In solidarity,

Julie McKune
