Section 1801. Title and Purpose.

This Amendment shall be known as the Pasadena Fair and Equitable Housing Charter Amendment. The purpose of this Amendment is to promote neighborhood and community stability, healthy housing, and affordability for renters in Pasadena by regulating excessive rent increases and arbitrary evictions to the maximum extent permitted under California law, while ensuring Landlords a fair return on their investment and guaranteeing fair protections for renters, homeowners, and businesses.

Section 1802. Findings.

(a) WHEREAS, according to the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey (ACS) 1-year estimates, as of 2018, a significant majority (57.7 percent) of all occupied units in the City were occupied by renter households; and

(b) WHEREAS, African American and Hispanic or Latino households are disproportionately renter households. According to the U.S. Census Bureau's ACS 1-year estimates, in 2018, 69.7 percent of African American households were renters while 67.7 percent of Hispanic or Latino households were renters; and

(c) WHEREAS, according to the U.S. Census Bureau's ACS 1-year estimates, the median gross rent in Pasadena has increased by 32.0 percent (from $1287 to $1669) between 2012 and 2018 while the Consumer Price Index (all items in Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim, all urban consumers, not seasonally adjusted) has increased by 12.4 percent over the same period, resulting in an effective 17.5 percent increase in median rent in 2018 inflation-adjusted dollars between 2012 and 2018; and

(d) WHEREAS, according to the ACS 1-year estimates, the median rent in 2018 inflation-adjusted dollars has increased by 27.0 percent for an efficiency unit, 17.4 percent for a one-bedroom unit, and 18.6 percent for a two-bedroom unit over the three year period between 2015 and 2018; and

(e) WHEREAS, according to the U.S. Census Bureau 2018 ACS 1-year estimates, a majority of Pasadena tenant households are rent-burdened. In 2018, an estimated 54 percent of renter households (15,446 households) were paying 30 percent or more of their income toward rent, and 31 percent of renter households (8,847) were severely rent-burdened, paying 50 percent or more of their income towards rent; and

(f) WHEREAS, low-income renter households are particularly affected by rent-burdening with 89.4 percent (9417) of renter households with an annual household income between $10,000 - $49,999 paying 30 percent or more of their income towards rent, and 60.3 percent of these households (6349) paying 50 percent or more of their income toward housing rent; and

(g) WHEREAS, even amongst households with annual incomes between $50,000 and $99,000, 44.5 percent (3307) are rent-burdened, paying more than 30 percent of their incomes to rent; and

(h) WHEREAS, according to the Pasadena Draft 2015-2019 Consolidated Plan, 42 percent of Pasadena households (23,375 households) have incomes ranging from 0 to 80 percent of Area Median Income (AMI) with 15 percent extremely low-income (8,385 households at 0 to 30 percent AMI), with 12 percent very low-income (6,610 households at 30 to 50 percent AMI), and 15 percent as low income (8,380 households at 50 to 80 percent AMI); and

(i) WHEREAS, according to the Pasadena Draft 2015-2019 Consolidated Plan, “Severe cost burden is the greatest predictor of homelessness risk. Populations paying more than 50 percent of their income towards housing costs or having incomes at or below 50 percent AMI have the greatest risk of becoming homeless”; and

(j) WHEREAS, a majority of people experiencing homelessness in the City are Pasadenans. According to the 2019 Pasadena Homeless Count & Subpopulation Survey, 58% of people experiencing homelessness in Pasadena were Pasadena residents at the time of housing loss; and

(k) WHEREAS, according to the Pasadena Homeless Count & Subpopulation Survey, 30% of people experiencing homelessness in Pasadena identified job loss (leading to a presumed inability to pay rent) as a primary cause of their homelessness, while 14% identified eviction as a primary cause of their homelessness; and

(l) WHEREAS, according to the US Census Bureau’s 2015 Rental Housing Finance Survey, nationally, the median number of hours per month spent by a rental property owner on managing a rental property is three (3); and

(m) WHEREAS, according to the US Census Bureau’s 2015 Rental Housing Finance Survey, less than half (47.8 percent) of rental units nationally are owned by an individual investor, with the rest being owned by trusts, corporate entities, non-profit organizations and other non-natural persons; and

(n) WHEREAS, the implementation of rent relief strategies is supported by Pasadena’s adopted 2014-2021 Housing Element: “Pasadena residents have an equal right to live in decent, safe and affordable housing in a suitable living environment for the long-term well- being and stability of themselves, their families, their neighborhoods, and their community. The housing vision for Pasadena is to maintain a socially and economically diverse community of homeowners and renters who are afforded this right”; and

(o) WHEREAS, tenants in Pasadena experience increased housing instability. According to the ACS 2018 1-year estimates, 45.8 percent of tenant households had moved since 2015 whereas only 17.7 percent of owner households had moved since 2015. This trend persists even when considering only households with a head of household between 35 and 64 years of age. 45.1 percent of tenant households in this age range had moved since 2015 while only 20.4 percent of owner households in this age range had moved since 2015; and

(p) WHEREAS, in the absence of city regulation on rent increases or residential evictions, tenants in the City of Pasadena have expressed that they are being displaced as a result of evictions or their inability to pay excessive rent increases and must relocate, but as a result of the housing shortage are unable to find decent, safe and healthy housing at affordable rent levels; and that some renters attempt to pay requested rent increases, but as a consequence must expend less on other necessities of life, such as food, transit, and healthcare; and

(q) WHEREAS, the foregoing housing and economic conditions create a detrimental effect on substantial numbers of renters in the City and are a threat to the public health, safety and welfare, and a particular hardship for senior citizens, persons on fixed incomes, families with children, and other vulnerable tenants; and

(r) WHEREAS, eviction or other displacement imposes an especially high burden on school-aged children and their families, including increased absence from school and other educational disruption that can have long-lasting effects; and

(s) WHEREAS, in 2018 the median rent according to the ACS 1-year estimates for an efficiency rental unit in Pasadena ($1311) was 22.9 percent higher than the HUD Fair Market Rate for the Los-Angeles-Long-Beach-Glendale Metropolitan Area, the median rent for a one-bedroom unit in Pasadena ($1434) was 11.7 percent higher than the HUD fair market rate, and the median rent for a two-bedroom unit in Pasadena ($1904) was 14.5 percent higher than the HUD fair market rate, demonstrating that Pasadena rents are significantly higher than the HUD fair market rate; and

(t) WHEREAS, the Pasadena Municipal Code (Section 9.75 Tenant Protection) provides for relocation assistance to low-income tenants being displaced from their rental housing equal to two and a half months HUD fair market rent for a unit of comparable size, and further provides for a moving expense allowance of $1306 for adult households or $3935 for households with dependents; and

(u) WHEREAS, much of the rental housing in the city requires that prospective tenants pay two (for unfurnished units) or three (for furnished units) months of rent up front in order to secure a lease, imposing accumulated relocation expenses (consisting of three months median rent and the moving assistance currently mandated by the City of Pasadena) on a typical household with children living in a two-bedroom unit of $9797, which was approximately six times the HUD fair market rate for a two-bedroom unit ($9978 as calculated in 2018); and

(v) WHEREAS, residents of the City of Pasadena have formally expressed their concerns regarding rising rents and displacement to the City Council at over thirteen (13) public Council meetings since 2017.

(w) WHEREAS, a petition to enact “The Pasadena Fair and Equitable Housing Charter Amendment” was circulated beginning in December 2017. It was foreseeable that rent control and just cause eviction protections were being considered in Pasadena; and

(x) WHEREAS, the Apartment Management Magazine of the San Gabriel Valley published in July 2019, “rent control is on the horizon and apartment owners should now do everything possible now[sic] to have secure future income practices in place that a rent control cap allows. Using RUBS [Ratio Utility Billing System], allows the owner to pass higher utility and other costs, dollar for dollar, to the tenant.” This demonstrates that landlords are planning to use auxiliary fees to circumvent rent control measures; and

(y) WHEREAS, on October 8th 2019, the California Assembly adopted the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 (AB 1482), which regulates rent increases and evictions in the State of California, but which did not come into effect until January 1st 2020. Eviction attorneys in the Pasadena area, including prominent eviction attorney Dennis Block, advised landlords to evict tenants and increase rent prices as quickly as possible during the intervening period. Block delivered this advice to several hundred property owners at the Pasadena Convention Center on October 2nd 2019; and,

(z) WHEREAS, on November 5th 2019, the Pasadena City Council adopted Ordinance No. 7352 “An Uncodified Ordinance of the City of Pasadena Adopting the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 Relating to the Prohibition of No-Fault Terminations of Tenancy and Evictions and Limiting Rent Increases for Residential Real Property Through December 31st, 2019”, recognizing that many landlords were evicting tenants in late 2019 in order to circumvent the March 15th 2019 rollback date of new statewide rent control regulations; and,

(aa) WHEREAS, findings (v)-(z) demonstrate that Landlords are aware that Pasadena Tenants are organizing and advocating for rent stabilization and just cause eviction protections; that Landlords are likely to react to concrete efforts to establish such protections in Pasadena by rapidly increasing rental housing costs; and therefore that the circulation of the instant petition is likely to cause a distortion in the Pasadena rental housing market; and

(bb) WHEREAS, in a 2019 poll of 700 registered voters in Pasadena conducted by The David Binder Research Institute on behalf of Pasadenans Organizing for Progress, 69% of respondents supported rent control and 82% of respondents supported just cause for eviction protections; and

(cc) WHEREAS, 54.86% of voters (29349 vs. 24153) in Pasadena voted YES on Proposition 10 in the 2018 General Election, which would have repealed the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act and hence given municipalities in California greater freedom to enact rent control measures; and

(dd) WHEREAS, the City of Pasadena currently does not regulate rental amounts, rent increases, or evictions from residential housing; and

(ee) WHEREAS, landlords are overrepresented on the City Council. As documented in the video archive of the City Council Meetings on October 22nd 2018 (Item 9) and June 3rd 2019 (Item 12), at least three of the seven members of the City Council currently own rental housing in Pasadena; and

(ff) WHEREAS, as documented in the video archive of the City Council Meeting on March 25th 2019 during Item 15, the Pasadena Department of Housing and Career Services was instructed by the Council not to consider rent control or just cause for eviction when proposing possible expansions to the City's Tenant Protection Ordinance, which demonstrates the unwillingness of the Council to legislate any rent control or eviction protections in the City; and

(gg) WHEREAS, this Article is more protective than the provisions of Civil Code Section 1946.2 and shall apply to Covered Rental Units as defined herein.

Section 1804. Exemptions.

(a) Fully Exempt (Exempt from Both Rent Stabilization and Just Cause for Eviction). The following Rental Units are exempt from all provisions of this Article:

- (1) Units in hotels, motels, inns, tourist homes, lodging and rooming houses and boarding houses, including hotels, lodging houses, rooming houses, and boarding houses as defined in Pasadena Municipal Code Section 14.12.030, provided that at such time as an accommodation has been occupied as the primary residence of one or more of the same tenants for any period more than thirty (30) days such accommodation shall become a Covered Rental Unit. The computation of the thirty (30) days shall include days in which the Tenant was required to:

(A) Move into a different guestroom or efficiency unit before the expiration of thirty (30) days occupancy; or

(B) Check out and re-register before the expiration of thirty (30) days occupancy if a purpose was to avoid application of this Article. Evidence that an occupant was required to check out and re-register shall create a rebuttable presumption, which shall affect solely the burden of producing evidence, that the housing accommodation is a Covered Rental Unit.

- (2) Rental Units in any hospital, convent, monastery, extended medical care facility, asylum, non-profit home for the aged; dormitory owned and operated by an accredited institution of higher education, or Rental Units in a facility that has the primary purpose of operating a treatment or recovery program, where such Rental Units are provided incident to a client's participation in the treatment or recovery program and where the client has been informed in writing of the temporary or transitional nature of the housing at the inception of his or her participation in the program;
- (3) Rental Units owned or operated or managed by a not-for-profit organization pursuant to a tax credit program;
- (4) Rental Units which a government unit, agency or authority owns, operates, or manages, or in which government-subsidized Tenants reside, if applicable federal or state law or administrative regulation specifically exempt such units from municipal rent control; and
- (5) Rental Units additionally exempted pursuant to Section 1805 (Additional Homeowner Protections).

(b) Partially Exempt (Just Cause for Eviction Applies). The following Rental Units are exempt from Sections 1807, 1808, and 1809 of this Article (regarding Stabilization of Rents) and from Sections 1813 and 1814 (regarding Petitions for Individual Rent Adjustment), but are not exempt from Section 1806 (Just Cause for Eviction Protections):

- (1) To the extent required by state law, Rental Units exempt from rent control pursuant to the Costa Hawkins Rental Housing Act (California Civil Code Section 1954.52. et seq.). Where rent restrictions are permitted by state law, the Rental Board may issue rules and regulations to govern the restrictions on Rental Units identified in this paragraph;

- (2) Rental Units governed by Pasadena City Code Chapter 17.42, Section 17.42.040 (Inclusionary Housing Requirements) and Chapter 17.43 (Density Bonus, Waivers and Incentives) to the extent permissible by law.

Section 1805. Additional Homeowner Protections.

In addition to the Rental Units exempted in Section 1804(a) of this Article (Fully Exempt), the following Rental Units are also fully exempt from this Article:

- (a) A homeowner who is the primary resident of a Single-Family Home may create a temporary tenancy. The temporary Tenant must be provided, in writing at the inception of the tenancy, the length of the tenancy, to last no longer than twelve (12) months, and a statement that the tenancy may be terminated and relocation shall not be provided. A homeowner may not create such temporary tenancies for more than a total of twelve (12) months in any thirty-six (36) month period.
- (b) A Tenancy where the Tenant shares a bathroom or kitchen with the homeowner shall be exempt from this Article if the home is the Primary Residence of the homeowner.

Section 1806. Just Cause for Eviction Protections.

- (a) Just Causes for Eviction: No Landlord shall take action to terminate any tenancy, or endeavor to recover possession of a Rental Unit, including but not limited to making a demand for possession of a Rental Unit, threatening to terminate a tenancy orally or in writing, serving any Written Notice to Cease or other eviction notice, or bringing any action to recover possession, or be granted recovery of possession of a Rental Unit unless at least one of the following conditions exists:
 - (1) Failure to Pay Rent. The Tenant has failed, after receiving a Written Notice to Cease, to pay the Rent to which the Landlord is legally entitled under the Rental Housing Agreement, this Article, state, and any other local law. This condition does not include a failure to pay any separately charged fees.
 - (2) Breach of Lease. The Tenant has continued, after Written Notice to Cease, to substantially violate any of the material terms of the rental agreement, except the obligation to surrender possession on proper notice as required by law, and provided that such terms are reasonable and legal and have been accepted in writing by the Tenant or made part of the rental agreement; and provided further that, where such terms have been accepted by the Tenant or made part of the rental agreement subsequent to the initial creation of the tenancy, the Landlord shall have first notified the Tenant in writing that he or she need not accept such terms or agree to their being made part of the rental agreement.
- (A) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Section, a Landlord shall not take any action to terminate a tenancy based on a Tenant's sublease of the unit if the following requirements are met:

- (i) The Tenant continues to reside in the Rental Unit as his, her or their primary residence.
 - (ii) The sublease replaces one or more departed Tenants under the Rental Housing Agreement on a one-for-one basis.
 - (iii) The Landlord has unreasonably withheld the right to sublease following written request by the Tenant. If the Landlord fails to respond to the Tenant in writing within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the Tenant's written request, the Tenant's request shall be deemed approved by the Landlord. A Landlord's reasonable refusal of the Tenant's written request may not be based on the proposed additional occupant's lack of creditworthiness, if that person will not be legally obligated to pay some or all of the Rent to the Landlord. A Landlord's reasonable refusal of the Tenant's written request may be based on, but is not limited to, the ground that the total number of occupants in a Rental Unit exceed the maximum number of occupants as determined under Section 503(b) of the Uniform Housing Code as incorporated by California Health & Safety Code Section 17922.
- (B) Protections for Families. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Section, a Landlord shall not endeavor to recover possession of a Rental Unit as a result of the addition to the Rental Unit of a Tenant's child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister, other dependent relative, or the spouse or domestic partner (as defined in California Family Code Section 297) of such relatives, or as a result of the addition of the spouse or domestic partner of a Tenant, or as a result of the addition of the sole additional adult tenant, so long as the number of occupants does not exceed the maximum number of occupants as determined under Section 503(b) of the Uniform Housing Code as incorporated by California Health & Safety Code 17922. The Rent Board shall promulgate regulations that will further protect families and promote stability for school-aged children.
- (3) Nuisance. The Tenant has continued, after the Landlord has served the Tenant with a Written Notice to Cease, to commit or expressly permit a nuisance in, or cause substantial damage to the Rental Unit or to the unit's appurtenances, or to the common areas of the Property containing the Rental Unit, or is creating an unreasonable interference with the comfort, safety, or quiet enjoyment of any of the other residents or immediately adjacent neighbors of the Property.
- (4) Illegal Purpose. The Tenant is using or permitting a Rental Unit, the common areas of the Property, or an area within a 300 foot radius from the boundary line of the Property to be used for any illegal purpose.

The term "illegal purpose" as used in this subsection includes, but is not limited to, clear and convincing evidence of violations of any of the provisions of Division 10, Chapter 6

(commencing with Section 11350) and Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 11400) of the California Health and Safety Code, and does not include the use of housing accommodations lacking a legal approved use or which have been cited for occupancy or other housing code violations.

- (5) Refusal to Execute New Lease. The Tenant, who had a Rental Housing Agreement which terminated on or after the effective date of this Article, has refused, after written request or demand by the Landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration with terms which are materially the same as in the previous Agreement and provided that such terms do not conflict with any provision of this Article or any other provision of law.
- (6) Failure to Give Access. The Tenant, after receiving proper notice, has refused the Landlord reasonable access to the Rental Unit for the purpose of making repairs or improvements, or for the purpose of inspection as permitted or required by law, or for the purpose of showing the Rental Unit to any prospective purchaser or mortgagee.
 - (A) The Board shall promulgate regulations for the repair and improvement of Rental Units to ensure the least amount of disruption for the Tenant. Unless due to a documented emergency affecting a Tenant's health and/or safety or as required by state law, all repair or improvement work will be scheduled in compliance with applicable Board regulations. In the event that a Tenant refuses access to the Rental Unit for repairs, a Landlord must show that written notice was provided to the Tenant and all necessary repair or improvement work was scheduled in compliance with all applicable Board regulations to terminate tenancy under this subsection.
 - (B) The notice requesting access shall inform the Tenant that if he or she is unable to comply because of a disability, he or she may request a change in the Landlord's policies or practices or other reasonable accommodation to the Tenant's disability.
- (7) Subtenant in Sole Possession. The person in possession of the Rental Unit at the end of a lease term is a subtenant not approved by the Landlord.
- (8) Necessary and Substantial Repairs Requiring Temporary Vacancy. The Landlord, after having obtained all necessary permits from the City of Pasadena, and having provided written notice to the Tenant, seeks in good faith to undertake substantial repairs that are necessary to bring the Rental Unit into compliance with applicable codes and laws affecting the health and safety of Tenants of the building, provided that:
 - (A) As independently confirmed by the City of Pasadena, the repairs necessitate that the Tenant vacate the Rental Unit because the work will render the Rental Unit uninhabitable for a period of not less than thirty (30) days, and
 - (B) The Landlord gives advance notice to the Tenant of the Tenant's right to elect one or both of the following:

- (i) The right of first refusal to any vacant Rental Unit owned by the Landlord at the same or lower Rent, provided that the unit is of comparable or superior material living condition and convenience for the Tenant, if such comparable or superior vacant unit exists.
 - (ii) The first right of return to reoccupy the unit upon completion of the repairs at the same Rent charged to the Tenant before the Tenant temporarily vacated the Rental Unit to the extent allowed by state law.
 - (iii) In the event that the Tenant elects to accept an offer to move to a comparable vacant Rental Unit at the same or lower Rent, the Tenant is not eligible for any Relocation Assistance pursuant to Section 1806(b) herein, however the length of tenancy shall continue to be calculated from the date the Tenant first entered into a Rental Housing Agreement at the Property.
 - (C) In the event the Landlord files a Petition for Individual Rent Adjustment within six (6) months following the completion of the work, the Tenant shall be party to such proceeding as if he or she were still in possession, unless the Landlord submits with such application a written waiver by the Tenant of his or her right to reoccupy the premises pursuant to this subsection.
- (9) Owner Move-In. The Landlord seeks, after providing 6 months written notice to the Tenant, to recover possession of the Rental Unit in good faith for use and occupancy as a Primary Residence by the Landlord, Landlord's spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, parents, or grandparents.
- (A) As used in this subsection, "Landlord" shall only include a Landlord that is a natural person and has at least a fifty percent (50%) recorded ownership interest in the Property.
 - (B) No eviction may take place under this subsection if the same Landlord or enumerated relative already occupies a unit on the Property, or if a vacancy already exists on the Property. If a comparable unit does become vacant and available before the recovery of possession, the Landlord shall rescind the notice to vacate and dismiss any action filed to recover possession of the premises.
 - (C) Any notice terminating tenancy pursuant to this subsection shall contain the name, address and relationship to the Landlord of the person intended to occupy the Rental Unit, and the rights pursuant to Subparagraph (E) herein.

 - (i) Offer the Rental Unit to the Tenant who vacated it at the same Rent in effect when the Tenant vacated; and
 - (ii) Pay to said Tenant all reasonable expenses incurred in moving to and from the Rental Unit.

- (F) Eviction Protection for Elderly or Disabled Tenant. A Landlord may not evict a Tenant pursuant to this subsection if the Tenant has resided in the Rental Unit for at least five (5) years and is either: (1) at least sixty (60) years or older, (2) Disabled; and/or (3) is certified as being terminally ill by the Tenant's treating physician. The Landlord first must have filed the requisite documents with the Rental Board initiating the procedure for withdrawing Rental Units from rent or lease under California Government Code Section 7060 et. seq. and all regulations passed by the Rental Board, with the intention of completing the withdrawal process and going out of the rental business or demolition of the Property. To the extent allowed by state law, the Landlord must give advance notice to the Tenant of the Tenant's right to elect one or both of the following:

- (B) The first right of return to reoccupy the unit if and when it is found to be in compliance with the order at the same Rent charged to the Tenant before the Tenant temporarily vacated the Rental Unit.
 - (i) In the event that the Tenant elects to accept an offer to move to a comparable vacant Rental Unit at the same or lower Rent, the Tenant is not eligible for any Relocation Assistance pursuant to Section 1806(b) herein, however the length of tenancy shall continue to be calculated from the date the Tenant first entered into a Rental Housing Agreement at the Property.

(b) Relocation Assistance.

A Landlord seeking to recover possession under Subsections (a)(8)-(11) above shall provide Relocation Assistance. The Landlord shall provide a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of the required Relocation Assistance within ten (10) days of service of any written notice of termination pursuant to Subsections (a)(8)-(11) to the Tenant(s). - (C) A Landlord shall provide Relocation Assistance to any Tenant household who is displaced from a Rental Unit due to inability to pay Rent increases in excess of 5 percent plus the most recently announced Annual General Adjustment in any twelve-month period. The Landlord must provide Relocation Assistance to such Tenant households no later than the date that they vacate the Rental Unit. The Board shall issue rules and regulations to further effectuate this subdivision, including but not limited to the procedures and forms for establishing and facilitating payment of Relocation Assistance, an appeal process, if any, and rules to ensure the reasonably timely payment of any applicable Relocation Assistance. The Board may reduce the threshold triggering Relocation Assistance to Rent increases lower than 5 percent plus the most recently announced Annual General Adjustment in any twelve-month period if it determines that the lower threshold is necessary to further the purposes of this Article.

(c) Right of Return and First Right of Refusal. All Tenants whose tenancy is terminated on a basis enumerated in Subsections (a)(8)-(11) herein shall have the first right of refusal to return to the Rental Unit if that Rental Unit is returned to the market by the Landlord or a successor Landlord to the maximum extent permitted by state law. Rent for the Rental Unit shall be the Rent lawfully paid by the Tenant at the time the Landlord gave notice of termination based upon Subsections (a)(8)-(11) herein to the maximum extent permitted by state law. The Rental Board shall decide on a timeline and procedures for the subsequent notification of the former Tenant of the return of their Rental Unit to the market.

(d) Required Notice for Withdrawal of Rental Units From Rental Housing and Regulation of Property on Re-Offer of Rent or Lease After Withdrawal. Within 180 days of the first meeting of the Rental Board, the Rental Board shall adopt regulations, in the manner specified by California Government Code Section 7060.5, that implement all of the provisions set forth in California Government Code Section 7060 et seq. Such regulations shall be updated from time to time to ensure consistency with California Government Code Section 7060 et seq. and to ensure that the maximum protections authorized by law are afforded to Tenants of Rental Units.

The Rental Board shall adopt the rate by October 1 of each year. The interest rate established by the Rental Board shall be the rate in effect from January 1 through December 31 of the subsequent year.

(g) Retaliation is Barred. No Landlord may threaten to bring, or bring, an action to recover possession, cause the Tenant to quit the Rental Unit involuntarily, serve any Written Notice to Cease or notice of termination of tenancy, decrease any services, interfere with the Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Rental Unit and common areas, or increase the Rent where the Landlord's dominant motive is retaliation against the Tenant for the Tenant's assertion or exercise of rights under this Article, including creating and/or associating with Recognized Tenants Organizations or individuals involved with tenant advocacy. Such retaliation shall be a defense to an action to recover possession, or it may serve as the basis for an affirmative action by the Tenant for actual and punitive damages and injunctive relief. A Tenant may assert retaliation affirmatively or as a defense to the Landlord's action regardless of the period of time which has elapsed between the Tenant's assertion or exercise of rights under this Article and the alleged act of retaliation. However, there is a presumption of retaliation if Tenant engages in protected activity described herein in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the issuance of a Written Notice to Cease. The Rental Board may address retaliation issues further in its rules and regulations consistent with the intent of this subsection to prevent unlawful retaliation.

- (h) Harassment is Prohibited. No Landlord may threaten to bring, or bring, an action to recover possession, cause the Tenant to quit the Rental Unit involuntarily, serve any Written Notice to Cease or notice of termination of tenancy, change the terms of lease without express written agreement from the Tenant, decrease any services, refuse to accept or acknowledge receipt of a Tenant's lawful Rent pursuant to this Article, or interfere with the Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Rental Unit and common areas as part of an attempt to increase the Rent above the maximum allowable Rent permitted under this Article, either by obtaining such excessive Rent from the Tenant or by creating a vacancy and increasing the Rent for a new Tenant. Tenants are also protected from harassment for creating and/or associating with Recognized Tenant Organizations or individuals involved with tenant advocacy. Such harassment shall be a defense to an action to recover possession, or it may serve as the basis for an affirmative action by the Tenant for actual and punitive damages and injunctive relief. The Rental Board may address harassment issues further in its rules and regulations consistent with the intent of this subsection to prevent unlawful harassment.
- (i) Notice to Specify Basis for Termination. Any notice purporting to terminate tenancy on any of the bases specified in this section must state with specificity the basis on which the Landlord seeks to terminate the tenancy.

- (l) Failure to Comply. A Landlord's failure to comply with any requirement of this section, including without limitation the failure to serve any of the required notices to the Rental Board or to pay Relocation Assistance in subsection (b), is a complete affirmative defense in an unlawful detainer or other action brought by the Landlord to recover possession of the Rental Unit.

Reimbursement of the City shall not take precedent over the normal and reasonable operating costs of the Rental Board.
- (m) Integrity and Autonomy of Rental Board. The Rental Board shall be an integral part of the government of the City, but shall exercise its powers and duties under this Article independent from the City Council, City Manager, and City Attorney, except by request of the Rental Board. The Rental Board may request the services of the City Attorney, who shall provide them pursuant to the lawful duties of the office in Article II, Chapter 2.30 of the Pasadena City Charter. The City shall provide infrastructure support on an ongoing basis as it would with any other City department.
- (n) Board Legal Work. The Rental Board may, in its sole discretion, and without approval of the City Council, retain private attorneys to furnish legal advice or representation in particular matters, actions, or proceedings.
- (o) Conforming Regulations. If any portion of this Article is declared invalid or unenforceable by decision of a court of competent jurisdiction or rendered invalid or unenforceable by state or federal legislation, the Rental Board and not the City Council shall have authority to enact replacement regulations consistent with the intent and purpose of the invalidated provision and applicable law. Such replacement regulations shall supersede invalidated or unenforceable provisions of this Article to the extent necessary to resolve any inconsistency. The subject matter of such replacement regulations shall be limited to the matters addressed in this Article.
- (p) Designation of Replacement Rental Board. In the event the establishment of the Rental Board under this section is adjudged to be invalid for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, the City Council shall designate one or more City departments, agencies, Rental Boards, or commissions to perform the duties of the Rental Board prescribed by this Article.
- (q) Conflict of Interest. Rental Board members shall not necessarily be disqualified from exercising any of their powers and duties on the grounds of a conflict of interest solely on the basis of their status as a Landlord, Property manager, realtor, developer, or Tenant, provided they meet the eligibility requirements of their respective group (Tenant or at-large). However, a Rental Board member shall be disqualified from ruling on a Petition if the Rental Board member either has Material Interest in a Rental Property involved in the Petition, or is a Tenant at that Property, or has an Extended Family member who is a Tenant at the Property, or has met any of these criteria at any time since their appointment to the Rental Board, or during the three (3) years preceding their appointment. The provisions of the Political Reform Act, California Government Code Sections 87100 et seq. shall apply.

Section 1812. Rental Registry: The Rental Board shall create a Rental Registry and online portal pursuant to the requirements of this section. The Rental Registry and online portal shall be designed to receive information from owners of Properties subject to registration and to disseminate information to the public. The Rental Board shall promulgate regulation necessary to implement these provisions.

- (a) Covered Properties. Properties with Covered Rental Units are subject to registration in the Rental Registry. The Rental Board may require additional Properties to be subject to registration at its discretion.
- (b) Date of Implementation. The Rental Registry, online portal, and all forms necessary for their effective and efficient use shall be available and operational within one year of the effective date of this article.
- (c) Owner Information Submission. All owners of Property subject to registration must complete and submit a rental registry form for each such Property no later than 90 days after the Rental Registry becomes operational, and subsequently every following year, no later than April 1st. In the event of any change in Property ownership, the new owner must register or update the Rental Registry within 30 days of the change of ownership.
- (d) Data Collected. The rental registry form shall collect information about Rental Units subject to registration, including but not limited to:
 - (1) The legal address or addresses of each Property, and all associated Rental Unit numbers or addresses.
 - (2) The legal name of the owner or ownership entity for each Property, including, but not limited to, limited partners, general partners, and LLC members.
 - (3) The name and contact information of a natural person serving as point of contact for purposes of service or contact.
 - (4) The number and size of each Rental Unit, including the number of bedrooms, bathrooms, and approximate square footage of the Rental Unit.
 - (5) The beginning and end dates (if any) of all tenancies begun or terminated within the past year.
 - (6) The amount of Rent collected over the past year for each Rental Unit during each month of occupation.
 - (7) The utilities, services, and other amenities included in the Rent for each Rental Unit.
- (e) Online Portal. The Rental Board shall make the following information available as part of the online portal:
 - 1) The maximum lawful rent for each Rental Unit
 - 2) The actual rent charged each month that the unit was occupied.
 - 3) The beginning and end dates (if any) of all tenancies begun or ended within the past year.
 - 4) The number of bedrooms in each Rental Unit and the approximate square footage of each Rental Unit.
 - 5) Additional information as required by regulations promulgated by the Rental Board.

- (f) Violations. The Rental Board may also publish information about violations of housing codes or violations of this article pertaining to a given Rental Unit through the online portal. If the Rental Board chooses to publish such information, it must establish regulations which limit or redact these publications in order to balance the desire for transparency with a respect for the privacy of Tenants. Such regulations must also guarantee that these publications do not violate any applicable law.
- (g) Data Publication. The Rental Board should regularly collect, analyze, and publish various local statistics computed using the data described in (e) and (f) above, including, but not limited to statistics regarding rents, rent increases, unit mix, changes in tenancy, and code compliance and violations.
- (h) Other Jurisdictions. The Rental Board may determine that, if another jurisdiction maintains a publicly available Rental Registry that collects and makes available substantially the same information, it may be more efficient and financially responsible for the Rental Registry authorized and required in this Section to be combined with the Rental Registry of another jurisdiction. The Rental Board may issue regulations from time to time to maximize the efficiency of this duty while complying with the substantive requirements of this Section.
- (i) Failure to Register. Pursuant to Section 1817(f), the Rental Board shall establish appropriate penalties for the failure of a Landlord to register any Property subject to registration under this Section.

Section 1813. Petitions for Individual Rent Adjustment—Bases. A Landlord or a Tenant may file a Petition with the Rental Board seeking adjustment, either upward or downward, of the Rent for any given tenancy in accordance with the standards set forth in this section, and using the procedures set forth in Section 1814 herein and implementing regulations. A Petition shall be on a form provided by the Rental Board and, if made by the Landlord, shall include a declaration by the Landlord that the Covered Rental Unit complies with all requirements of this Article.

(a) Petition for Upward Adjustment – Fair Return. To effectuate the purposes of this Article and the requirements of law, a Landlord may file a Petition for an upward adjustment of the Rent to ensure a Fair Return. It is the intent of this Article that individual upward adjustments in Rent be granted only when the Landlord demonstrates that such adjustments are necessary to provide the Landlord with a Fair Return. The Rental Board may promulgate regulations to further govern Petitions filed pursuant to this subsection in accordance with law and the purposes of this Article.

- (1) Prerequisites. No upward adjustment of Rent shall be authorized by a Hearing Officer or the Rental Board under this subsection if the Landlord:
 - (A) Has continued to fail to comply, after order of the Rental Board or other authority, with any provisions of this Article or orders or regulations issued thereunder; or

- (B) Has failed to maintain the Covered Rental Unit in compliance with California Civil Code Sections 1941.1 et seq. and California Health and Safety Code Sections 17920.3 and 17920.10.

(b) Fair Return Standard.

- (1) Presumption of Fair Base Year Net Operating Income. It shall be presumed that the net operating income received by the Landlord in the Base Year provided a fair return.
- (2) Fair Return. A Landlord has the right to obtain a net operating income equal to the Base Year net operating income adjusted by fifty percent (50%) of the Consumer Price Index (CPI), as defined in Section 1808(a)(1) herein, since the Base Year. It shall be presumed this standard provides a fair return. The Base Year CPI shall be the annual CPI for calendar year 2021. The “current year” CPI shall be the annual CPI for calendar year preceding the calendar year the application is filed.
- (3) Base Year.
 - (A) For the purposes of making Fair Return determinations pursuant to this section, the Base Year means the 2021 calendar year.
 - (B) In the event that a determination of the allowable Rent is made pursuant to this section, if a subsequent Petition is filed the Base Year shall be the year that was considered as the “current year” in the prior Petition.
- (4) Adjustment of Base Year Net Operating Income. The Landlord may present evidence to rebut the presumption of Fair Return based upon the Base Year net operating income as set forth in Subsection (b)(1) of this section based on at least one of the following findings:
 - (A) Exceptional Expenses in the Base Year. The Landlord’s operating expenses in the Base Year were unusually high or low in comparison to other years. In such instances, adjustments may be made in calculating operating expenses so the Base Year operating expenses reflect average expenses for the Property over a reasonable period of time. The following factors shall be considered in making such a finding:
 - (i) Extraordinary amounts were expended for necessary maintenance and repairs.

- (ii) Maintenance and repair was below accepted standards so as to cause significant deterioration in the quality of services provided.
- (iii) Other expenses were unreasonably high or low notwithstanding the application of prudent business practices.

(B) Exceptional Circumstances in the Base Year. The gross income during the Base Year was disproportionately low due to exceptional circumstances. In such instances, adjustments may be made in calculating Base Year gross rental income consistent with the purposes of this Chapter. The following factors shall be considered in making such a finding:

- (i) If the gross income during the Base Year was lower than it might have been because some residents were charged reduced Rent.
- (ii) If the gross income during the Base Year was significantly lower than normal because of the destruction of the premises and/or temporary eviction for construction or repairs.
- (iii) The pattern of Rent increases or decreases in the years prior to the Base Year and whether those changes reflected increases in the CPI.
- (iv) Base period Rents were disproportionately low in comparison to the base period Rents of other Rental Units in the City.
- (v) Other exceptional circumstances.

- (i) Gross rental income shall include:
 - (I) Gross rents calculated as gross rental income at one hundred percent occupancy, adjusted for uncollected Rents due to vacancy and bad debts to the extent such vacancies or bad debt are beyond the control of the Landlord. Uncollected Rents in excess of three percent (3%) of gross rent shall be presumed to be unreasonable unless established otherwise by the Landlord and shall not be included in computing gross income.

(II) All other income or consideration received or receivable in connection with the use or occupancy of the Rental Unit, except as provided in Clause (ii) of this section.

(ii) Gross rental income shall not include:

(I) Utility Charges for charges for sub-metered gas, electricity or water.

(II) Charges for refuse disposal, sewer service, and/or other services which are either provided solely on a cost pass-through basis and/or are regulated by state or local law.

(IV) Storage charges.

(A) Included in Operating Expenses. Operating expenses shall include the following:

(i) Reasonable costs of operation and maintenance.

(ii) Management Expenses. It shall be presumed that management expenses have increased by the percentage increase in Rents or the CPI, whichever is greater, between the Base Year and the current year unless the level of management services has either increased or decreased significantly between the Base Year and the current year.

(iii) Utility Costs. Utility Costs except utility where the consideration of the income associated with the provision of the utility service is regulated by state law and consideration of the costs associated with the provision of the utility service is preempted by state law.

(iv) Real Property Taxes. Property taxes are an allowable expense, subject to the limitation that property taxes attributable to an assessment in a year other than the Base Year or current year shall not be considered in calculating Base Year and/or current year operating expenses.

- (v) License and registration fees. License and registration fees required by law to the extent these expenses are not otherwise paid or reimbursed by Tenants.
- (vi) Landlord-performed labor. Landlord-performed labor compensated at reasonable hourly rates. However, no Landlord-performed labor shall be included as an operating expense unless the Landlord submits documentation showing the date, time, and nature of the work performed. There shall be a maximum allowed under this provision of five percent (5%) of gross income unless the Landlord shows greater services were performed for the benefit of the residents.
- (vii) Costs of Capital Replacements. Costs of capital replacements plus an interest allowance to cover the amortization of those costs where all of the following conditions are met:
 - (I) The costs, less any insurance proceeds or other applicable recovery, are averaged on a per unit basis for each Rental Unit actually benefited by the improvement.
 - (II) The costs are amortized over a period of not less than thirty six months.
 - (III) The costs do not include any additional costs incurred for Property damage or deterioration that result from any unreasonable delay in undertaking or completing any repair or improvement.
 - (IV) The costs do not include costs incurred to bring the Rental Unit into compliance with a provision of the Pasadena Municipal Code or state law where the original installation of the improvement was not in compliance with code requirements.
 - (V) At the end of the amortization period, the allowable monthly Rent is decreased by any amount it was increased because of the application of this provision.
 - (VI) The amortization period shall be in conformance with a schedule adopted by the Rental Board unless it is determined that an alternate period is justified based on the evidence presented in the hearing.
- (viii) Legal Expenses. Attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with successful good faith attempts to recover Rents owing, successful good faith unlawful detainer actions not in derogation of applicable law, and legal expenses necessarily incurred in dealings with respect to the normal operation of the Property. Reasonable fees, expenses, and other costs incurred in the course of successfully pursuing rights under or in relationship to this Chapter and regulations adopted pursuant to the Chapter including costs incurred in the course of pursuing successful Petitions. Said expenses shall be amortized over a five-year period, unless the Rental Board concludes that a different period is more reasonable.

Allowable legal expenses which are of a nature that does not recur annually shall be amortized over a reasonable period of time. At the end of the amortization period, the allowable monthly Rent shall be decreased by any amount it was increased because of the application of this provision.

- (ix) Interest Allowance for Expenses that Are Amortized. An interest allowance shall be allowed on the cost of amortized expenses; the allowance shall be the interest rate on the cost of the amortized expense equal to the “average rate” for thirty-year fixed rate on home mortgages plus two percent. The “average rate” shall be the rate Freddie Mac last published in its weekly Primary Mortgage Market Survey (PMMS) as of the date of the initial submission of the Petition. In the event that this rate is no longer published, the Rental Board shall designate by regulations an index which is most comparable to the PMMS index which shall be used.
- (x) Rental Housing Fee, as defined in Section 1810(k)(1).

- (i) Mortgage principal or interest payments or other debt service costs.
- (ii) Any penalties, fees or interest assessed or awarded for violation of any provision of this chapter or of any other provision of law.
- (iii) Land lease expenses.
- (iv) Political contributions.
- (v) Payments to organizations which are substantially devoted to legislative lobbying purposes.
- (vi) Depreciation.
- (vii) Any expenses for which the Landlord has been reimbursed by any utility rebate or discount, Security Deposit, insurance settlement, judgment for damages, settlement or any other method or device.

- (viii) Unreasonable increases in expenses since the Base Year.
- (ix) Expenses associated with the provision of master-metered gas and electricity services.
- (x) Expenses which are attributable to unreasonable delays in performing necessary maintenance or repair work or the failure to complete necessary replacements (e.g., a roof replacement may be a reasonable expense, but if water damage occurred as a result of unreasonable delays in repairing or replacing the roof, it would not be reasonable to pass through the cost of repairing the water damage).

(C) Adjustments to Operating Expenses. Base Year and/or current operating expenses may be averaged with other expense levels for other years or amortized or adjusted by the CPI or may otherwise be adjusted, in order to establish an expense amount for that item which most reasonably serves the objectives of obtaining a reasonable comparison of Base Year and current year expenses. Grounds for such adjustments include, but are not limited to:

- (i) An expense item for a particular year that is not representative.
- (ii) The Base Year expense is not a reasonable projection of average past expenditures for that item in the years immediately preceding or following the Base Year.
- (iii) The current year expense is not a reasonable projection of expenditures for that item in recent years or of future expenditures for that item.
- (iv) A particular expense exceeds the normal industry or other comparable standard for the area, the Landlord shall bear the burden of proving the reasonableness of the expense. To the extent that it is found that the expense is unreasonable it may be adjusted to reflect the normal industry standard.
- (v) A Base Year expense is exceptionally low by industry standards and/or on an inflation adjusted basis is exceptionally low relative to current year expenses although the level or type of service has not changed significantly.
- (vi) An increase in maintenance or management expenses is disproportionate to the percentage increase in the CPI, while the level of services has not changed significantly and/or is not justified by special circumstances.

(7) Rent Increases for Periods Preceding Date that a Landlord Implemented Rent Increases Pursuant to this Section. In the event that the period for determining the allowable Rent increase pursuant to this section exceeds 120 days, the Landlord may recover increases that would have been permitted if the Rent increase decision had been made within 120 days. The allowance for these increases may be amortized or may be factored into the prospective allowable increase in order to avoid undue hardship on the Tenants.

- (8) Assurance of a Fair Return. It shall be presumed that the MNOI standard provides a fair return. Nothing in this Article shall preclude the Rental Board or Hearing Officer from granting an increase that is necessary in order to meet constitutional fair return requirements.
 - (9) Effective Date of Individual Rent Adjustment. Rent increases authorized pursuant to this subsection shall become effective only after the Landlord provides the Tenant written notice of such Rent increase pursuant to state law.
- (c) Petition for Downward Adjustment – Failure to Maintain Habitable Premises.
- (1) Failure to maintain a Covered Rental Unit in compliance with governing health and safety and building codes, including but not limited to California Civil Code Sections 1941.1 et seq. and California Health and Safety Code Sections 17920.3 and 17920.10, constitutes an increase in Rent. A Tenant may file a Petition with the Rental Board to adjust the Rent downward based on a loss in rental value attributable to the Landlord's failure to maintain the Rental Unit in habitable condition.
 - (2) A Tenant Petition filed pursuant to this subsection must specify the conditions alleged to constitute the failure to maintain the Rental Unit in habitable condition and demonstrate that the Landlord was provided with reasonable notice and opportunity to correct the conditions that form the basis for the Petition.
- (d) Petition for Downward Adjustment – Decrease in Housing Services or Maintenance. A decrease in Housing Services or maintenance, or deterioration of a Covered Rental Unit beyond ordinary wear and tear, without a corresponding reduction in Rent, is considered an increase in Rent. A Tenant may file a Petition to adjust the Rent downward based on a loss in rental value attributable to a decrease in Housing Services or maintenance or deterioration of the Rental Unit. The Petition must specify the circumstances alleged to constitute a decrease in Housing Services or maintenance, and demonstrate that the Landlord was provided with reasonable notice and an opportunity to correct in like manner to Petitions filed pursuant to Subsection (c)(2) herein.
- (e) Petition for Downward Adjustment – Unlawful Rent: If a Landlord demands or retains Rent in excess of the lawful Rent pursuant to this Article, a Tenant may file a Petition to adjust the Rent to its lawful level. If such a Petition is granted, the Landlord shall be ordered to return any excessive Rent charged to the Tenant in violation of this Article. If the Landlord fails to comply with the Petition as granted within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the order, the Hearing Officer or Rental Board may authorize the Tenant to withhold a fraction of the downward-adjusted Rent until the Tenant has recovered the unlawful Rent amount collected as determined by the Petition order. This withholding fraction shall be determined by the Hearing Officer or Rental Board in accordance with withholding guidelines established by the Rental Board. During the withholding period, the downward-adjusted rent minus the withholding amount shall be considered the lawful rent to which the Landlord is legally entitled.

- (1) Defense to Nonpayment Ground for Eviction. The Petition order shall constitute a defense to any unlawful detainer action pursuant to Section 1806(a)(1) filed against a Tenant withholding Rent as authorized pursuant to this subsection. However, the issuance of an order from the Hearing Officer or Rental Board authorizing the withholding of Rent pursuant to a Petition order shall not prevent a Tenant from asserting previous overpayments of Rent as a defense in an unlawful detainer pursuant to Section 1806(a)(1).
- (2) Judicial Enforcement of Decision. A Tenant may also seek judicial enforcement of the Petition order from a court of competent jurisdiction. In appropriate cases, the Board may independently seek judicial enforcement of a Petition order. In the event that a Tenant vacates the Rental Unit prior to recovering the full amount as determined in the Petition order, the Landlord must pay the balance of the amount owed within two weeks of the Tenant vacating the Rental Unit.

Section 1814. Petitions for Individual Rent Adjustment — Procedures. The Rental Board shall promulgate regulations regarding procedures for Petitions filed under this Article. Petitions shall be governed by such regulations and by the provisions of this section.

- (a) Hearing Officer. A Hearing Officer appointed by the Rental Board shall conduct a hearing to act upon the Petition, and shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations, and to render a final decision on the merits of the Petition, subject to the provisions of this Article.
- (b) Notice. The Rental Board shall notify the Landlord, if the Petition was filed by the Tenant, or the Tenant, if the Petition was filed by the Landlord, of the receipt of such a Petition and provide a copy thereof.
- (c) Time of Hearing. Each party to a Petition shall receive sufficient advance notice of the bases, theories, and relevant documents to be presented by the other party(ies), and of the time, date, and place of any hearing regarding the Petition. Extra diligent effort will be made to prioritize and schedule hearings to accommodate the work schedules and other obligations of each Party, including but not limited to, scheduling on evenings and weekends.
- (d) Developing the Record. The Hearing Officer may require either party to a Petition to provide any books, records, and papers deemed pertinent. If the Hearing Officer finds good cause to believe that a building or other inspection would assist in resolving the issues raised by the Petition, the Hearing Officer may conduct an inspection and/or request the City to conduct an inspection. The Tenant may request the Hearing Officer to order such an inspection prior to the date of the hearing. All documents required under this subsection shall be made available to the parties involved prior to the hearing. The parties to the hearing may be present during the inspection.
- (e) Open Hearings. All hearings conducted pursuant to this section shall be open to the public unless prohibited by state or federal law.
- (f) Right of Assistance. All parties to a hearing conducted pursuant to this section may have assistance in presenting evidence and developing their position from attorneys, legal workers, Recognized Tenant Organization representatives, or any other persons designated by said parties.

- (g) Hearing Record. The Rental Board shall make available for inspection and copying any official record that shall constitute the exclusive record for decision on the issues at the hearing. The record of the hearing, or any part of one, shall be obtainable for the reasonable cost of copying. All hearings shall be audio or video recorded, as ordered by the Hearing Officer, and any party to the Petition may receive a copy of the recording upon payment of a reasonable cost.
- (h) Quantum of Proof and Notice of Decision. No Petition for Individual Rent Adjustment, whether upward or downward, shall be granted unless supported by the preponderance of the evidence submitted prior to and at the hearing. All parties to a hearing shall be sent a notice of the decision and a copy of the findings of fact and law upon which said decision is based. At the same time, parties to the proceeding shall also be notified of their right to appeal to the Rental Board and/or to judicial review.
- (i) Consolidation. Whether submitted by a Landlord or Tenant(s), all Petitions pertaining to Covered Rental Units at the same Property may be consolidated for hearing upon a showing of good cause.
- (j) Appeal. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Hearing Officer may appeal to the full Rental Board for review. On appeal, the Rental Board shall affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the Hearing Officer. The decision on appeal shall be based on the hearing record, and the Rental Board may hear and/or find facts in addition to those presented to the Hearing Officer.
- (k) Finality of Decision. The decision of the Hearing Officer shall be the final decision of the Rental Board, unless an aggrieved party has timely sought an appeal to the Rental Board. The decision of the Rental Board on appeal shall be final unless an aggrieved party has timely sought judicial review pursuant to law.
- (l) Time for Decision. A final decision on any Petition shall be made within a reasonable time. Decisions decreasing Rent shall remain in effect until the Landlord has corrected the defect warranting the decrease. The Rental Board shall, by regulation, establish procedures for making prompt compliance determinations.
- (m) Fair Return Guaranteed. No provision of this Article shall be applied so as to prohibit the Rental Board from granting an Individual Rent Adjustment that is demonstrated by the Landlord to be necessary to provide the Landlord with a Fair Return.

Section 1815. Judicial Review.

A Landlord or Tenant aggrieved by any action or decision of the Rental Board may seek judicial review pursuant to state law and this Article and its implementing regulations. No action or decision by the Rental Board shall go into effect until any statutory time period for such review has expired.

Section 1816. Non-Waivability.

Any provision of a Rental Housing Agreement, whether oral or written, which purports to waive any provision of this Article established for the benefit of the Tenant, shall be deemed to be against public policy and shall be void.

Section 1817. Remedies.

In addition to any other remedies provided by law, Landlords and Tenants covered by this Article shall have the following remedies for violations of this Article.

- (a) Landlord's Demand or Retention of Excessive Rent. When a Landlord demands, accepts, receives, or retains any payment or payments in excess of the lawful Rent pursuant to this Article and the regulations promulgated hereunder, including in violation of the provisions ensuring compliance with habitability standards and maintenance of Housing Services, the Tenant may file a Petition pursuant to Section 1813 or file a civil suit against the Landlord. A Landlord who demands, accepts, receives, or retains any payment of Rent in excess of the lawful Rent shall be liable to the Tenant in the amount by which the payment or payments have exceeded the lawful Rent. In such a case, the Rent shall be adjusted to reflect the lawful Rent pursuant to this Article and its implementing regulations.
- (b) Civil Remedies. A Tenant may bring a civil suit in the courts of the state alleging that a Landlord has violated any of the provisions of this Article or the regulations promulgated hereunder, including that the Landlord has demanded, accepted, received, or retained a payment or payments in excess of the lawful Rent. In a civil suit, a Landlord found to violate this Article shall be liable to the Tenant for all actual damages, including but not limited to the damages described in Subsection (a) herein. A prevailing Tenant in a civil action brought to enforce this Article shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and costs as determined by the court. Additionally, upon a showing that the Landlord has acted willfully or with oppression, fraud, or malice, the Tenant shall be awarded treble damages. No administrative remedy need be exhausted prior to filing suit pursuant to this subsection.
- (c) Additional Relief for Landlord's Violation of Eviction Rules. If it is shown that the event which the Landlord claims as grounds to recover possession under Section 1806 is not initiated within two (2) months after the Tenant vacates the Rental Unit, or it is shown that the Landlord's claim was false or in bad faith, the Tenant shall be entitled to regain possession of the Rental Unit at same Rent that was lawfully in effect when the Tenant vacated, in addition to the relief described in Subsection (b) herein.
- (d) Defense to Action to Recover Possession. A Landlord's failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Article or regulations promulgated hereunder may be raised as an affirmative defense in an unlawful detainer or other action brought by the Landlord to recover possession of the Rental Unit. Any and all violations of this Article by the Landlord shall constitute such an affirmative defense, including but not limited to the demand or retention of payment in excess of the lawful Rent, failure to serve any of the notices required pursuant to this Article on the Tenant or the Rental Board, failure to pay the Rental Housing Fee, failure to pay any required Relocation

Assistance, and a decrease in Housing Services or maintenance without a corresponding reduction in Rent. It is the intent of this Article to construe this subsection to the broadest extent permissible under the law to ensure maximum compliance with this Article and avoid unlawful evictions.

- (e) Eviction Protection for Victims of Domestic Violence or Sexual Assault or Stalking or Abuse. It shall be a defense to an action for possession of a unit under Section 1806(a)(3)-(4) if the trier of fact determines that:
 - (A) The Tenant or the Tenant's household member is a victim of an act or acts that constitute domestic violence or sexual assault or stalking or abuse; and
 - (B) The notice to vacate is substantially based upon the act or acts constituting domestic violence or sexual assault or stalking or abuse against the Tenant or a Tenant's household member, including but not limited to an action for possession based on complaints of noise, disturbances, or repeated presence of police.
- (f) Rental Board or City Attorney Enforcement Action. If the Tenant fails to bring a civil or administrative action to enforce the Tenant's rights under this Article, the Rental Board or the City Attorney may bring such an action or settle the claim on the Tenant's behalf. If the Rental Board or City Attorney brings such an action, the Tenant shall be provided the right to opt in or out of the action. In the case of an opt-in, the Tenant on whose behalf the Rental Board acted is barred from bringing a separate action against the Landlord in regard to the same violation, and the Rental Board or City Attorney shall be entitled to recuperate the costs it incurred from any monetary recovery from the Landlord, with the remainder to go to the Tenant against whom the violation has been committed. In the case of an opt-out, the Tenant shall retain all rights relating to his or her right to private action. The Rental Board or City Attorney may take other such enforcement action as necessary to ensure compliance with this Article.
- (g) Penalties for Violations. In addition to the affirmative defense or any other rights of a tenant under law, a violation of the provisions of this article shall be punishable as an infraction by way of a fine. The Rental Board may establish, and periodically modify, a schedule of fines for violations of various provisions of this article as they see fit, provided these amounts are reasonable, and are chosen in accordance with applicable law.
- (h) Criminal Penalties. Any Landlord that violates this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished in accordance with Section 1.24.010 of the Pasadena Municipal Code.
- (i) Remedies Not Exclusive. The remedies available in this Article are not exclusive and may be used cumulatively with any other remedies in this Article or otherwise available at law.
- (j) Jurisdiction. The appropriate court in the jurisdiction in which the Rental Unit is located shall have jurisdiction over all actions brought under this Article.

Section 1818. Injunctive and Other Civil Relief.

The Rental Board, Tenants, and Landlords may seek relief from the appropriate court in the jurisdiction where the affected Rental Unit is located to enforce any provision of this Article or its implementing regulations or to restrain or enjoin any violation of this Article and of the rules, regulations, orders, and decisions of the Rental Board.

Section 1819. Partial Invalidity.

If any provision of this Article or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Article that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are declared to be severable. This Article shall be liberally construed to achieve the purposes of this Article and to preserve its validity.

Section 1820. Supersedes.

- (a) This Article supersedes any conflicting provisions of a municipal ordinance covering the area of rents, evictions, relocation assistance, or other matters addressed herein. However, nothing in this subsection shall be construed to restrict the authority of the City Council to enact complimentary or non-conflicting ordinances or take other such actions within its powers, where such ordinances or actions are designed to comply with or further the terms and purposes of this Article.
- (b) In the event any other ballot initiative addressing in whole or in part the same subject matter as this Article is approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon at the same election, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (1) This Charter Amendment shall supersede and prevail over any initiative ordinance which amends the Pasadena Municipal Code, regardless of the number of affirmative votes received; and
 - (2) If this Article receives a greater number of affirmative votes than any other such proposed charter amendment, including one that would provide that property owners have the right to set the price at which they rent residential property, then this Article shall control in its entirety and the other proposed charter amendment shall be rendered void and without any legal effect; and
 - (3) If this Article receives fewer affirmative votes than any other such proposed charter amendment, including one that would provide that property owners have the right to set the prices at which they rent residential property, all provisions of this Article which are not directly contradicted by the initiative receiving a greater number of affirmative votes will apply to the extent permitted by law.

Section 1821. Conflicting Charter Provisions.
