City Celebrates 100th Anniversary of Women's Right to Vote With Virtual Campaign

We're taking our 100th anniversary celebration of women's right to vote virtual! Our #VoteCauseWeCan campaign, which runs through Election Day on November 3, seeks to mobilize all voting-eligible women in Pasadena and across the state to exercise their right to vote. But we can't do it alone: we need your help. Visit our campaign webpage, CityOfPasadena.net/VoteCauseWeCan, for details on how to get involved and help increase voter turnout this year. The webpage features:

- Direct links to voter registration and information on how to vote;
- A list of upcoming voter registration and other events;
- Downloadable graphics and sample messages to share on social media with the official campaign hashtag #VoteCauseWeCan;
- A branded Zoom background to use during your next virtual meeting; and
- More ways to participate.

Make sure to follow us on Twitter @PasadenaGov, and Facebook and Instagram @cityofpasadena to keep up with the campaign and share our posts.

INICIATIVA DE LEY P: Protección de los Servicios de la Ciudad de Pasadena

El 3 de noviembre, los habitantes de Pasadena tienen que tomar otra decisión. Mediante la iniciativa de ley P, el electorado municipal elegirá si mantener la transferencia de larga data de servicios públicos al fondo general. La eliminación de estos fondos conllevaría una pérdida de aproximadamente $18 millones por año destinados a la respuesta 911 ante emergencias; los servicios de bomberos, paramédicos, salud pública y servicios para adultos mayores; planes para personas en situación de calle y de vivienda; refacciones de la vía pública y otros servicios municipales esenciales para mantener y mejorar la calidad de vida de los habitantes.

La empresa de agua y electricidad Pasadena Water and Power es una empresa de servicios públicos de propiedad de la municipalidad al servicio de los habitantes y empresas de Pasadena. El único objeto de la iniciativa de ley P es consultar a los votantes sobre si desean conservar la recaudación de fondos que se viene realizando para brindar los servicios municipales que los habitantes reciben a diario.

Desde 1934, las disposiciones de la Carta de Pasadena que establecen esta transferencia anual de fondos se sometieron a votación en total 7 veces, y siempre se han aprobado. Por ello, el Concejo Municipal vuelve a presentar la iniciativa P a votación, para que los habitantes decidan una vez más si mantener la recaudación aprobada hasta ahora.

La iniciativa no es un impuesto nuevo, no aumenta los impuestos actuales ni tampoco aumenta la tarifa de servicios públicos.

La Ciudad de Pasadena ya sufrió una pérdida de $30.4 millones por la pandemia de la COVID-19, pero pudo seguir brindando servicios a los habitantes y empresas durante esta crisis sanitaria mediante la utilización de fondos de reserva y la postergación de proyectos de infraestructura y otros programas. Sin embargo, no puede sostener este nivel de servicios y programas con otra pérdida de aproximadamente $18 millones al año, en caso de no aprobarse la iniciativa.

De ser aprobada por los votantes, la iniciativa P requerirá auditorías anuales y la rendición de cuentas de todo gasto; reducirá y limitará la transferencia al 12% y estará supeditada a controles a nivel local, a fin de que los fondos empleados favorezcan a los habitantes y las empresas de Pasadena.

Para más información, ingresar a CityOfPasadena.net.

MEASURE P: The Pasadena City Services Protection Measure

Pasadena residents have another choice to make on November 3. Measure P allows for Pasadena voters to choose whether or not to maintain the longstanding utility transfer to the general fund. The elimination of these funds would result in the annual loss of approximately $18 million that support emergency 911 response; fire, paramedic, public health and senior services; homelessness and housing programs; street repairs; and other essential City services that maintain and improve residents' quality of life.

Pasadena Water and Power is a community-owned utility benefitting Pasadena residents and businesses. Measure P simply asks voters if they would like to keep the existing funding in place that supports the everyday City services residents currently receive.

Since 1934, the Pasadena Charter provisions calling for the annual transfer of funds have gone to and were passed by voters a total of seven times. To maintain the current voter-approved funding, the City Council is placing Measure P on the ballot for Pasadena residents to decide once again.

Measure P is not a new tax, it does not raise current taxes, and it does not raise the utility rate.

MEASURE P WOULD CONTINUE TO FUND CITY SERVICES AND PROGRAMS

- Maintains neighborhood fire stations and emergency 911 response to fires, medical rescues, and natural disasters
- Repairs to local streets, sidewalks, and transportation infrastructure to improve traffic safety
- Protects locally controlled funding to prepare for a medical emergency, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, natural disasters, or other emergencies
- Maintains clean and safe public areas, parks, and community centers
- Addresses homelessness and protects the vulnerable such as seniors, young families and veterans
- Enables improvements to the infrastructure. The City of Pasadena is 134 years old – without maintenance the city will fall into disrepair
- Programs that keep neighborhoods and business districts safe and free from crime
- Supports Pasadena's sustainability efforts to create long-term economic, social, and environmental solutions

The City of Pasadena has already experienced a $30.4 million loss due to COVID-19. By using reserved funds and delaying infrastructure projects and other programs, the City has been able to continue serving residents and businesses throughout this health crisis. However, the City cannot sustain its level of services and programs with an additional loss of approximately $18 million annually, should the measure not pass.

If passed by voters, Measure P will require annual audits with public disclosure of all spending; will reduce and limit the transfer to 12%; and will be under local control, with funds spent benefitting Pasadena residents and businesses.

Are You Taking Care of YOUR MENTAL HEALTH?

We have made many changes to our daily lives because of COVID-19. Coping with so many changes can be hard. It is normal to feel worried, stressed or overwhelmed during a time of such uncertainty. Common signs of distress include:

- Fear and worry about your health and the health of loved ones;
- Fear and worry about losing a job and experiencing financial hardship; and
- Feelings of anger, sadness, loneliness and irritability.

Visit CityOfPasadena.net/public-health/COVID-19-mental-health for tips and resources to help manage your mental well-being during this difficult time.

Travel Safely With Pasadena Transit and Dial-A-Ride

Pasadena Transit and Dial-A-Ride are still in operation for your essential trips. In response to COVID-19, Pasadena Transit and Pasadena Dial-A-Ride have implemented a number of procedures and policies to provide the safest environment possible for customers and bus operators, including:

- Disinfecting high-touch surfaces on buses frequently throughout the day;
- Enhanced nightly disinfecting of every bus surface from floor to ceiling;
- Blocked off select seating on buses to encourage social distancing;
- Installation of hand sanitizer dispensers on all vehicles;
- Requiring facial coverings (coverings are available on board if passengers don't have one); and
- Limiting the number of passengers per bus.

Pasadena Dial-A-Ride continues to run regular hours seven days a week, transporting older members of our community for essential needs, including groceries and medical appointments. Special scheduling accommodations are available to help customers visit grocery stores during the early "senior" hours. In addition, Dial-A-Ride is working with area food banks to deliver food to members' homes.

Pasadena Transit has also introduced recent service changes to facilitate physical distancing on buses by adding service on the most popular routes. For the most up to date schedules, visit PasadenaTransit.net, and click the blue box "All Schedules."

For more information about Pasadena Transit and Dial-A-Ride, visit PasadenaTransit.net or call (626) 744-4094.

The Grass Is Green-er

Various athletic fields across the city are temporarily closed as the City of Pasadena's Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department (PRCS) performs turf renovations. These field closures allow crews to conduct much needed maintenance, including aerating, fertilizing, over-seeding, irrigation testing and repairs, and removal of in-field lip build up (on baseball/softball diamonds). Temporary fencing has or will be installed to protect renovated areas, as new grass seed needs an opportunity to establish sufficient roots and grow in preparation for future sports seasons. For more information, including the list of fields currently closed, visit CityOfPasadena.net/parks-and-rec or call (626) 744-7311.

COMING SOON: ORANGE GROVE RESURFACING PROJECT

This fall, Orange Grove Boulevard will be repaved from Lincoln Avenue to Sierra Madre Villa Avenue as part of the City's Annual Street Resurfacing Project. Reconstruction of damaged concrete curb, gutter, driveway aprons and access ramps are already underway. Phased closure of parking lanes and traffic lanes should be anticipated during construction. Work is expected to be completed in February 2021.

For additional information, including construction dates and location maps, visit the project website at CityOfPasadena.net/public-works/orangegroveblvd.

STAY ACTIVE, STAY CONNECTED

The Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department (PRCS) offers FREE virtual classes to keep your mind and body active at home. From Zumba to a DIY lava lamp making, there's a range of activities the whole family can enjoy. Follow PRCS on Facebook and Instagram @pasadenaparksandrec for the latest videos, or visit CityOfPasadena.net/parks-and-rec.

Pasadena Public Works Receives APWA Accreditation

This past March, the City of Pasadena Department of Public Works became the 20th agency in the state of California to receive accreditation by the American Public Works Association (APWA). The APWA Accreditation program recognizes public works agencies that go beyond the requirements established nationally in the APWA Public Works Management Practices Manual. The department not only passed APWA's peer review, but its strategic plan was lauded as an APWA model practice. This accreditation validates the department's commitment to innovation, high standards, and exemplary customer service, and allows the department comprehensive control over public works functions, as well as tracking systems and inventories. Receiving this nationally-recognized accreditation brings great pride to both the City and the public works department.

THE Aedes ARE BACK

Fall is a great time to enjoy your outdoor space, but beware: Aedes mosquitoes are most active during this time. The notorious ankle-biting, black-and-white striped mosquitoes don't go away when summer fades away. Instead, they continue to pester us well into October.

The San Gabriel Valley Mosquito & Vector Control District is reminding every resident to wear repellent to avoid being bitten. Use any of the following CDC-recommended active ingredients found on a repellent bottle: Oil of lemon eucalyptus, picaridin, DEET or IR3535.

In addition, take time to clear out any dense vegetation around the home. Dense vegetation in the form of ivy, hedges and large bushes can provide resting sites for mosquitoes. Even if residents eliminated stagnant water, dense vegetation can still invite biting mosquitoes into your yard or patio.

Stay bite-free, Pasadena. Visit SGVMosquito.org for more information.
