Appeal of the Code Enforcement Commission Panel Decision of February 2, 2017: An appeal of the Order rendered as a result of that hearing and based on the testimony and evidence introduced therein, the Commission found the male pit bull terrier Blu-Blu to be a public nuisance and issued an Order requiring that Blu-Blu be humanely euthanized. The Commission also ordered LANCTON to construct a kennel facility in which her remaining pit bull terrier Violet would be housed, except during those times when Violet is being walked and in compliance with the City's leash law as found in section 6.12.010 of the Pasadena Municipal Code.
