I am 100% PRO the new bar. Our lovely Washington square shopping area is already thriving and I think the family environment would only be enriched by permitting an adult evening environment. I frequent Bacchus for dinner and wine- the regulars there are 30+, I don't think that half a block when the bar is presented as a classy bar and restaurant- it should be able to maintain a good reputation and membership in our community. Plus offering a great date night option for adults/parents within walking distance rather than needing to drive down to S Lake.

Thank you very much-
