Comments

As an employee of Sequoyah School I cross the Pasadena California intersection a minimum of twice a day. At least twice a week a car has to come to a quick halt as they look back for traffic to see if they can take a right onto Pasadena Ave – they start to roll forward and then realize we are crossing – if they hit the gas too soon or quickly, we have no chance.

Increasing the car throughput at the intersections of California Boulevard and St. John Avenue, and California Boulevard and Pasadena Avenue, immediately adjacent to our school and Singer Park is unsafe for pedestrians. In the current arrangement at the corner of California Boulevard and Pasadena Avenue we have had both pedestrians and cars accessing our campus hit by speeding traffic. This project is in direct conflict with General Plan Policy 18.5 (Land Use-Mobility Compatibility) by increasing vehicle traffic volume and speeds to levels incompatible with the character of adjacent land uses, the functions of the street(s), and bicycle and pedestrian traffic.

I consent to have my comment read out loud during the meeting.
