Comments (under 200 words) It is entirely possible for Pasadena to outright ban facial recognition without passing a separate “transparency” and “accountability” ordinance. Any attempt to pass a surveillance “oversight” ordinance will legitimize surveillance and create pathways that police will use to introduce and win more approval of new surveillance. We reject that!

Comments (under 200 words) I don't want a surveillance ordinance because police should not be using surveillance on people to begin with, and they (police) are not honest with the things they already have. Setting up an ordinance will just make it seem like we have control over what they are doing, but we don't and we won't. Please don't create an ordinance for police but instead invest money in communities, not policing. That's what we want, not more police surveillance.

Comments (under 200 words) It is entirely possible for Pasadena to outright ban facial recognition without passing a separate “transparency” and “accountability” ordinance. A widespread and strong Black-led grassroots movement spanning Pasadena, Los Angeles County, and the entire country has been taking to the streets to demand defunding and abolishing police. We reject the ACLU’s effort to co-opt this movement to enact “oversight” and “transparency” ordinances that no one asked for. More surveillance is the last thing we need. As a recent graduate from Occidental College, I know other students feel strongly about removing all surveillance in order to protect our community members too and I hope our voices are heard in regards to this issue.

Comments (under 200 words) I am writing to oppose the expansion of surveillance in Pasadena. This is not going to make our community safe, it will assist in the policing and surveillance of Black and brown people. Stop trying to opt for band-aid solutions to crime when what the community really needs is strong schools, mental health services, and housing for all. Surveillance will not fix anything, it will contribute to mass incarceration though.
