Dear Jennifer,

My name is Lorin Smith. My wife, Robin (Pasadena native) and I patronize Linda Rosa Market at least 3 times a week. Our family owns 3 liquor licenses (one is a Pasadena location) so we are very familiar with the laws/protocols of maintaining them. We have gotten to know the owners and we know that they are more than capable of handling the responsibilities that come with owning a full liquor license. We buy our groceries/food at their market. Why should we have to go elsewhere to buy vodka, etc. We feel this is not a fair situation for them or us. Please consider extending a full liquor license permit. We would hate to see them lose their hard earned money on this application for nothing. They deserve it. We vote YES!

Thank you kindly,
Lorin Smith
