TO THE PASADENA PLANNING COMMISSION:

My name is Scott O'Connor and I am a member of Neighborhood Unitarian Universalist Church in Pasadena.

As we all know, Southern California—and Pasadena in particular—is in the midst of an affordable housing crisis. Too many of our neighbors are being forced to leave the area or are being left unhoused.

Pasadena churches want to offer their land for affordable housing, but they need the zoning changed allow for it. Please consider the necessary changes—this crisis has become desperate for too many of our neighbors. This is the time to act.

Thank you for your time, consideration of this issue, and service to our community.

Scott O'Connor
