To whom it may concern.....

Der Wolf and it's staff have been a huge blessing to everyone in the courtyard. I have been and am currently a tenant in the courtyard/patio area. Not only has Crystal and her family put countless hours into improving the patio area outside and making it more presentable, she did it on her own dime. She bought the business 3 months before the pandemic hit, and never had a chance to even get her bearings before she had to make major changes to her business to make it covid safe, and I have watched her do it all with a smile and without hesitation. Crystal, her family, and her staff constantly show up for everyone in the courtyard as well. They keep the courtyard clean, and it has majorly helped with the homeless situation we used to have. I have had her manager (J Owen) even stop someone from almost breaking into my studio. They treat everyone like family, and provide much needed safety in the back when I'm working alone at night. The repoire we have with each other is from the respect they give all of us that work back there. I frequent the bar, and I have never had anything but a good experience at any given moment. I have much respect and love for this business, and the people that run it. I personally am not in support of the revocation of their CUP.

To: whom it way concern

I'm writing to you on behalf of Vision Realty we've been arranging monthly happy hours on Friday's in the patio of Der Wolf consistently over the past 8 months. They have been a breath of fresh air to the community. The family who runs it is very hard working and accommodating. The music has always been a delight, we enjoy the old school R&B vibe. It would not only be horrible for Pasadena to lose this business, but unjust to close them down after how much they invested into the patio.

Regards,
Maria M Monge

I was a long time Pasadena resident. From 1983-2010.

All my roots are planted in Pasadena. I have fond memories of old town after they cleaned it up. Whenever i return to hang with friends or catch up with old coworkers i like meeting them at der wolf.. They have a pleasant patio with a great atmosphere. They are friendly and super nice. The owner is a gem. I'm proud that she's Latina and successful.

I seen her on Telemundo featured as a successful Latina owned business and i yelled out "der wolf!" in glee. It was an inspiration and hope my daughter will be inspired by her boldness and bravery.

This business should be celebrated. Especially after covid (where 1 in 5 businesses shut their doors for good). I find it remarkable. I support her business keeping her permit. Lots of my Pasadena friends like to meet up with me here. And i am sure they want to continue to be able to patron this business.
