I have been and will continue to be, a loving customer of Der Wolf. I've never felt that the atmosphere was abrasive or unsafe, and have always felt welcomed into the establishment the moment I pass the threshold of the door. Their food and service from my experiences has consistently been top-tier; it's always a fun venue to go and have a night out with friends. I would recommend this place to any friend or family member for a fun date night or place to grab a bite.

To whom this Concerns,

I am vouching for Der wolf as a safe place where my friends and family can enjoy some time in the city of Pasadena. We often go frequently and have become a big fan of the food and friendly staff that always greets us with a smile. This is a restaurant that I feel like could be a great asset to the community in the future and always recommend it to those visiting from out of the area.

Respectfully ,

Rick Stephens

Hello,

My experiences at Der Wolf have always been amazing. Not only are their dishes amazing, but the restaurant has a homey atmosphere while the staff treat you like family. I have always felt safe and welcome which is so important for someone like myself who part of the lgbtq+ community. I will continue to visit Der Wolf, because it is an exquisite experience each time I visit.

Best,
Erik Lua

Hello,

My name is Steven Lua and I am a big supporter of Der Wolf in Pasadena. I would like to start off by saying that as a repeat customer, I have always felt that the management has done everything within their power to maintain a clean, safe and professional environment. The staff always makes sure that every single customer is taken care of and feels comfortable. The service always exceeds my expectation.

With that being said, Der wolf continues to be one of the most proactive restaurants and bars to obey covid regulations and keep its customers safe during a deadly pandemic. Please find this email as a support letter for der wolf who in my opinion does everything within their control to maintain a safe and healthy environment for all its customers.

Sincerely,

Steven Lua
