To City of Pasadena Planning Staff,

The current and second most recent owners of 122 Patrician Way are currently in litigation with my family for the fraudulent purchase and acquisition of our property in December 2018, in which the purchase price $2.98m. As of May 2022, we have yet to receive over 50% of the payment due. Additionally, the current owners of the property have done unpermitted work on the property, including but not limited to the demolition of various structures on the property and new foundation work on the main home.

At this time, I believe granting, or even considering, an HDP to the current owners would be an act of bad faith by City of Pasadena planners.

Thank you,
Leilani
