Mr. Weaver:

I have owned property at South Daisy Avenue for over thirty years. I find the prospect of a Thrift Store coming into the neighborhood to be undesirable. Every Thrift store I have seen invites a lower class of patron, large amounts of donated or abandoned goods piling up, and a display of used and antiquated items displayed out front on the store. Junky. I had hoped another financial institution would return to the location. Bottom line, I just do not want a thrift store. I do not feel it would serve the needs of the immediate community. Rather I believe it will further erode the culture of East Pasadena.

I would be happy to elaborate more if you would like. I would appreciate it if you could read my comments at today's meeting. Thank you.
