To Whom It May Concern:

The safe parking program has provided a safe haven for people who, without their cars, would be homeless. The folks who participate in the program are vetted beforehand by the “Making Housing Happen” team. Peaceable and approachable, they have been easy to befriend. Trinity hosts a hospitality meeting each month where members of Trinity, Making Housing Happen and the Foothill Unity Center organizations meet for food and a gathering with the Trinity safe parkers. We talk about how things are going, what’s working, what next and gather valuable first-hand information for improving the program. We’re so happy that many of our safe parkers have found housing. They, for the most part, are generous, giving people who have fallen on hard times. We’re really glad we can help.

Sincerely,

Maureen McConnell
