City of Pasadena Human Services Commission

Work Plan: 07/08/2026–06/09/2027

Mission:

The purpose of the commission is to advise and make recommendations to the council regarding the human service needs of people of all ages in this community. This commission will aid the City in facilitating collaborative efforts and a coordinated approach to improve and expand the delivery of quality human services in Pasadena. This commission is established to respond to significant unmet human service needs and gaps as identified in such documents that include, but are not limited to, the Early Child Development Policy, Needs Assessment, and related materials.

The commission shall:

1. Facilitate bringing City and community resources together to ensure the delivery of effective human services to people of all ages;
2. Formulate ideas and suggest plans and programs designed to promote the availability and effectiveness of human services;
3. Promote cooperation and collaboration among local agencies, organizations and commissions involved in the delivery of human services, consistent with the roles and responsibilities outlined in such documents as the Human Services Commission work plan;
4. Recommend priorities to the council for City resources which respond to identified unmet human service needs;
5. Collaborate with commissions, advisory groups, community agencies, provider organizations, groups, and individuals to facilitate effective collaboration in addressing human service issues in Pasadena;
6. Advise the council on ways to achieve human service goals consistent with council-adopted policies which address human services.

FY 2026–2027 Ad Hoc Committees:

Ad Hoc Committee: Objective #1 – Early Childhood & Elementary-Aged Children

Ad Hoc Committee: Objective #2 – People Experiencing Homelessness

Ad Hoc Committee: Objective #3 – Access to Affordable Healthcare

Ad Hoc Committee: Objective #1 – Early Childhood & Elementary-Aged Children

Objective Purpose: Support developmental health of children in Pasadena with a lens toward equity. Promote awareness of resources for children, female heads of households, and caregivers.

Commissioners: Barnwell-Scott, Sotelo, Apodaca, Lee

Action Items:

- Determine ways to support agencies to support young children.
- Collaborate with the Office of the Young Child to develop a resource guide for female heads of household and caregivers.
- See the results of the 2022 Early Childhood Development Policy, what has been implemented, and if there are any recognizable changes due to the implementation.

Work Plan Updates:

July 2026:

- Chair Grater appointed Commissioners Barnwell-Scott, Sotelo, Apodaca, and Lee to the ad hoc committee. Commissioner Barnwell-Scott was selected to serve as lead for the ad hoc committee.
- The Commission reviewed and revised the objective purpose to reflect support for the developmental health of children in Pasadena and promotion of resources for children, female heads of households, and caregivers.
- The ad hoc committee did not meet and there were no updates to the objective.

August 2026:

- Commissioner Barnwell-Scott reported that the ad hoc committee met on July 20 and began developing an action plan focused on creating a live digital resource document for families. The committee discussed reconnecting with the Office of the Young Child and Pasadena Early Childhood Hub Network, researching Growing Together Pasadena and the Early Development Instrument, and continuing collaboration related to the Celebration of the Young Child.
- The ad hoc committee began compiling a resource list and identified Foothill Family, Pacific Clinics, Sycamores, and Hillsides as organizations to contact regarding mental health resources and ways to improve community access to those resources.
- The ad hoc committee will follow up regarding whether the Early Development Instrument is currently being used by the City and the information it may provide.

September 2026:

Status:

Ad Hoc Committee: Objective #2 – People Experiencing Homelessness

Objective Purpose: Increase the availability of interim and temporary housing in Pasadena and advocate for policies targeted for women, seniors, and domestic violence survivors.

Commissioners: Orlando, Grater, Paccerelli, Edoria, Offray (resigned, July 13, 2026)

Action Items:

- Collaborate with the Commission on the Status of Women and the Senior Commission to better address the needs of those subgroups of the unhoused population.
- Advocate for more targeted policies to address the housing needs of domestic violence survivors.
- Work with City Council and the HHPC (Housing, Homelessness, and Planning Committee) to advance plans for transitional housing.

Work Plan Updates:

July 2026:

- Chair Grater appointed Commissioners Orlando, Paccerelli, Offray, and Edoria to the ad hoc committee. Commissioner Orlando was selected to serve as lead for the ad hoc committee.
- The Commission reviewed and revised the objective purpose to reflect increasing the availability of interim and temporary housing in Pasadena and advocating for policies addressing the needs of women, seniors, and domestic violence survivors.
- Chair Grater reported that the ad hoc committee met on June 26, 2026, and discussed next steps for the Transitional Housing Report developed during the previous fiscal year. The ad hoc committee discussed a request for the Commission to approve the report, finalize the document, and submit it to the Housing, Homelessness, and Planning Committee in accordance with staff's guidance. Staff (Washington) explained that, once finalized, the report should be provided to staff for submission through the department, posting on the Commission webpage, and forwarding to the Housing, Homelessness, and Planning Committee. The Commission reviewed the report and did not have any changes. The report was approved as part of the FY 2026–2027 Work Plan and will be finalized for submission to Staff (Washington).
- The ad hoc committee discussed reviewing the current objectives and action items of the Commission on the Status of Women and Senior Commission to identify potential areas of collaboration. The committee also discussed inviting representatives from both commissions to a future ad hoc committee meeting.
- The ad hoc committee identified the Commission on the Status of Women's planned update to the Report on the Status of Women in Pasadena as a potential opportunity to contribute information related to homelessness and housing needs.

- The ad hoc committee discussed exploring a listening session to learn directly from domestic violence survivors about their housing needs and contacting researchers to identify surveys and other data that could inform more targeted policies.

August 2026:

- The Commission approved the Transitional Housing Report for distribution to City Council and the Housing, Homelessness, and Planning Committee.
- The ad hoc committee did not meet during the reporting period. Chair Grater and Commissioner Edoria attended a Housing, Homelessness, and Planning Committee meeting where they discussed the proposed shelter and the Commission's Transitional Housing Report. Commissioner Edoria reported that City Councilmembers/HHPC members raised concerns about transitional housing capacity, the effect on other motel patrons, and prior experiences with individuals declining motel placements. Chair Grater discussed the possibility of transitional housing operating alongside the proposed 24-hour shelter. The ad hoc committee is awaiting further follow-up.

September 2026:

Status:

Current Problem

- In 2026, counts of individuals and chronically homeless individuals reached record highs in the history of data collection.

- Unsheltered rates are also trending upward, impacting most racial, ethnic, and gender subgroups.

- Homeless services systems continued to expand the availability of both temporary and permanent beds in 2026, but these resources still fall short of reaching everyone in need.

FMISC (MISC FELONY)
Summary:
E. Colorado Blvd./Sierra Madre Villa Ave.
On 07/01/2026 at 2:03 AM, officers were in the area of Colorado Blvd. and Sierra Madre Villa when they observed a male riding a bicycle without an operating headlamp. Officers conducted an enforcement stop, and the subject consented to a search of his person. During the search, officers located narcotics possessed for the purpose of sales. The subject was also found to be in possession of a concealed large knife and U.S. currency in various denominations. Based on the totality of the circumstances, the subject was arrested for possession of narcotics for sale and booked at the City Jail.

Summary:
N. Los Robles Ave./E. Villa St.
On 07/01/2026 at 6:45 PM, officers observed a vehicle driving erratically and committing multiple traffic violations in the area of Los Robles Avenue and Villa Street. Officers attempted a traffic stop, but the vehicle failed to yield. As a result, a vehicle pursuit ensued.

The pursuit lasted approximately one minute and covered approximately one mile, before the vehicle stopped at Oakland Avenue and Villa Street. The suspect was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Pasadena City Jail, where he was booked for CVC 2800.2(a), Felony Reckless Evading.

Summary:
1200 Medford Rd.

On 07/18/2026 at 4:36 PM, officers responded to the 1200 block of Medford Road regarding a possible burglary. Officers located the suspect in the 1700 block of Valley View Avenue and attempted to detain him. The suspect refused verbal commands to stop, physically resisted when approached and struck an officer in the face with his elbow or fist. The officer responded with two closed hand strikes, resulting in reportable use of force. Officers then gained control of the suspect and took him into custody overcoming the resistance. The suspect declined medical treatment and denied being injured. The two officers sustained minor injuries but also declined treatment. The suspect was booked for felony resisting. The investigation later determined no burglary had occurred, although the suspect had been observed looking into properties.

Summary:
700 Merrett Dr.
On 07/22/2026 at 06:52 AM, Officers responded to the 700 block of Merrett Drive regarding an assault. Upon arrival, the officers could hear glass breaking and yelling. Officers saw the suspect breaking an exterior window to the residential property with a chair as the victim fended off the suspect from inside the house with a 2x4. Officers called out to the suspect who then approached the officers in an aggressive while holding the chair. The suspect raised the chair as if to strike a nearby officer resulting in a use of force. An officer deployed their TASER striking the suspect twice. The suspect fell to the ground and dropped the chair. Officers were able to restrain the suspect as he continued to kick and resist.

The investigation revealed the suspect and victim are related. The suspect lives on the property in a rear house and prior to PPD arrival the suspect assaulted the victim by punching him multiple times in the face. The victim was able to push the suspect out of the house, lock the door and call 911.

The victim was seen by PFD at the scene and released. The suspect was transported to a local hospital due to his agitated state and the belief he was under the influence drugs and/or alcohol. No officers were injured. The suspect will be booked for felony vandalism and assault.

Summary:
400 Madison Ave.
On 07/26/2026 at 03:24 AM, officers responded to a report of a fight in the 400 block of Madison Avenue. Upon arrival, officers contacted the suspect and victim in front of the location. The parties involved live in the same neighborhood and know each other. Both parties sustained minor injuries and declined medical treatment. The suspect was intoxicated and refused to provide a statement. The victim stated the suspect knocked on his door and accused him of selling drugs. The suspect then assaulted the victim with a skateboard. The victim sustained a swollen, bleeding hand while attempting to defend himself. During the altercation the suspect threatened to kill the victim. The victim was desirous of prosecution. Based on the investigation, the suspect was arrested for assault and criminal threats. The suspect was booked at the Pasadena Police Department.

ADW (Assault with a Deadly Weapon)
Summary:
600 N. Lake Ave.

On 07/03/2026 08:57 AM, officers from the Pasadena Police Department responded to the 7-11 located in the 600 block of North Lake Avenue regarding an "Assault w/ a Deadly Weapon" call. Utilizing details provided via PPD Dispatch, officers successfully detained the suspect (M/H/A) to the front of the business immediately upon their arrival. In summary, the victim (M/H/A) told officers that he was cleaning the commercial parking lot at the location when he came across the suspect loitering on the property. The victim asked the suspect, a local transient, to leave. The suspect refused and instead became irate. The suspect subsequently grabbed a 2-foot metal pole from his belongings, held it above his head in a threatening manner, and challenged the victim to fight. The victim retreated; however the suspect gave chase. During the chase, the suspect attempted to strike the victim in the head 1-2 times with the pole. The victim ran into the 7-11 business for help, but the suspect followed. Once inside the business, the suspect swung the pole one more time at the victim's head. This strike was also unsuccessful. The suspect was confronted by a store employee and told to leave. As the suspect exited the business, he was contacted by PPD officers.

Summary:
200 Barthe Dr.
On 07/05/2026 07:34 PM, Officers responded to the 200 block of Barthe St., regarding an assault. When officers arrived, they located the suspect and victim. Officers were able to determine the victim and suspect are neighbors and were drinking together in a common area. They got into a verbal argument when the suspect pulled a box cutter on the victim and cut the victim on the forearm. The victim fled to his apartment when the suspect retrieved a shovel, then went into the victims apartment and struck him with the shovel. The suspect was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon and booked at the PPD jail.

Summary:
Morton Ave. and Glorieta St.
On 07/10/2026 06:31 PM, officers responded to the area of the 1000 block of Morton Ave., regarding a vandalism that occurred where the suspect also brandished a handgun. When the officers arrived, they contacted the victim who stated his vehicle was parked on Morton Ave. when the suspect drove up, keyed his vehicle and slashed his tire. The suspect then drove to the 1000 block of North Fair Oaks Ave. to his residence. The victim followed and when he was going to confront the suspect, the suspect brandished a firearm. The victim fled and called the police. Officers responded to the Fair Oaks address and located the suspect. They detained him without incident and located a firearm in a patio area of the suspect’s residence. The suspect was arrested for PC 245.

Summary:
1000 N. Fair Oaks Ave.
On 07/15/2026 07:35 PM, officers responded to the 1000 block of N. Fair Oaks Avenue, regarding an assault. Upon arrival, officers contacted the victim who had visible injuries and stated she was assaulted by a known subject.

The victim said and the suspect got into an argument that turned physical. She stated the suspect struck her with her hands and a cane. The victim sustained a contusion to her forehead, and injuries to her shoulders, back, neck, arms, and hands. Pasadena Fire Department paramedics responded and treated the victim's injuries.

The victim identified the suspect, who was nearby. The suspect was taken into custody without incident. After being advised of her Miranda rights, the suspect admitted to striking the victim with the cane, stating it was in self-defense.

The suspect was transported to the Pasadena City Jail, where she was booked for P.C. 245 ADW (Assault with a Deadly Weapon).

E. Glenarm St./S. Arroyo Pkwy.
On 07/19/2026 10:27 PM, officers responded to a fight in progress at Glenarm Street and Arroyo Parkway. Dispatch relayed that at the stoplight, a male armed with a bat was seen striking another male. Upon arrival, officers contacted the victim, and the suspect was contacted south of the incident.

Investigation determined this was a road rage incident. The victim was riding his motorcycle while the suspect was driving his car, accompanied by his girlfriend in the front passenger seat. According to the victim, the suspect cut him off in traffic. When both parties stopped at the same stoplight, the victim yelled to the suspect through the passenger window, asking why he cut him off. A verbal argument ensued, and the suspect exited his vehicle, initiating a physical altercation with the victim.

The suspect then retrieved a bat from his car and pursued the victim, striking him several times. During the altercation, the suspect's girlfriend pushed the victim's motorcycle to the ground damaging it. According to the victim, in self-defense, he drew a pocketknife and, as the suspect approached him, stabbed the suspect once in the left side. The suspect fled the scene in his car, but was located and detained by officers a short time later.

An independent witness confirmed observing the suspect chasing the victim with the bat and striking him.

The suspect was taken into custody and transported to a local hospital for treatment of his stab wound. The victim sustained bruising to his upper back and pain to his left hand; his helmet, though broken by the bat strike, prevented head injury. The victim refused medical treatment at the scene.

The suspect was arrested for violation of PC 245 (Assault with a Deadly Weapon) after being medically cleared for booking.
