

October 2019

GREETINGS!

October is Disaster Preparedness Month and to help remind us of what to do during, and following a major event, this fall's Town Hall will focus on preparedness. I hope you can join me on Thursday, 10/24. Please see the flyer below. Bring a picture of your emergency pack and be entered in a raffle to win Rose Parade tickets.

An election to fill the Council seat I currently occupy will happen on March 3, 2020 and the filing period will open on November 12, 2019. If you have an interest in helping shape the future of Pasadena and want to be on City Council, please consider attending one of the two informational meetings on 11/12. For more information, please click here.

I hope to see you on the 24th.

Pasadena Police Community Brief

The attached brief summarizes critical events in our City. These events are a snapshot of the approximately one-thousand daily calls received by the Pasadena Police Communications Center and are meant to give you a greater awareness of what's happening in our City. Please remember, if you see something, say something! Check it out here.

Care For A Little Culture?

ArtNight is for you. Twice a year, the City and local cultural institutions open their doors to the public for free. Art & Music combine with free shuttles to make a night out for the whole family. Food trucks will be on hand to purchase food.
