ROSE BOWL TAKES 94th ANNUAL JULY 4th CELEBRATION VIRTUAL, KEEPING TRADITION ALIVE

Recognized as one of the nation's largest and longest running shows to celebrate America's birthday, the Rose Bowl Stadium will host its 94th Annual July 4th

Celebration virtually this year to ensure the tradition remains on-going.

For the past 93 years, America's Stadium has proudly provided the greater Pasadena area and beyond with a 4th of July Celebration, which was comprised of an all-day tailgate, family fun activities, musical act and fireworks show. Due to the current status surrounding COVID-19 and the inability to host and encourage gatherings, the RBOC is changing tradition and providing America with a new form of entertainment, this year. Virtual event attendees can access the online event through the Stadium's social media handles or directly at www.RoseBowlLive.tv.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: SATURDAY, JULY 4 FROM 2:00 - 3:00 PM

The one-hour virtual event will include entertainment from the following:

Mt. Wilson "Sunstar" Prism

Cello Artist, Cecilia Tsan

Special Guest Appearance by Multi-Platinum Artist, Andy Grammer

Celebrations of our United States Veterans and Military Personnel

Community Messages Thanking First Responders and Frontline Workers

Flyover Over Pasadena's Most Historic Landmarks

To register for this free event and/or to submit your video thanking local heroes, please visit www.RoseBowlLive.tv. Videos must be no longer than 15 seconds and filmed in landscape mode (horizontal). For more information on the July 4th Virtual Celebration, please visit www.rosebowlstadium.com or follow our social media handles @RoseBowlStadium.
