

District 6 Constituents,

Here is a new notice from our Pasadena Health Department. Please check the City website daily as information is updated regularly.

^ People 65 and Over

Please submit the form below to receive more information in the future on how to access the COVID-19 vaccine for Pasadena residents ages 65 and over.

NOTE: This is not an appointment scheduler.

At this time we are waiting for vaccine supply from the State, and we will make appointments available when vaccine is available. Please contact your primary healthcare provider who may have access to the COVID-19 vaccine sooner.

If you need assistance or have additional questions, please call the Citizen's Service Center at (626) 744-7311.

^ Additional Resources

From our Pasadena Health Department;

The COVID-19 vaccine page has been updated to include an inquiry form for people ages 65 and older. At this time, we are not scheduling appointments as we are waiting on vaccine supply from the State. The Pasadena Public Health Department's recommendation is that people should contact their primary healthcare provider who may have access to the COVID-19 vaccine.

Please see below, and note that the 311 Call Center is poised to answer calls.
