

DISTRICT 6 NEIGHBORHOOD NOTICE

A MESSAGE FROM DISTRICT 6 COUNCILMEMBER STEVE MADISON

District 6 Constituents,

Monday I attended a vigil for a bright, innocent 13-year-old, Iran Moreno. He was murdered while sitting in his bedroom in his Pasadena home where he was hit by a stray bullet. Regrettably, this tragedy is just the latest event in a long-running spate of gang-related violence in Northwest Pasadena. We need to redouble our efforts to prevent gun violence, provide resources and support to disrupt and prevent gang activity, offer children and families safe and constructive alternatives to gang membership, and support our public safety personnel--police, fire and public health--who are on the front lines and who bravely respond to these extremely dangerous and traumatic incidents.

As we gather with family and friends this Thanksgiving, please remember Iran Moreno and his family, and all those who need our help more than ever.

Wishing you a safe and happy Thanksgiving and hope to speak with you soon.

Steve
