

PASADENA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Policies Governing the Public Use of Library Facilities

Statement of Purpose

The Pasadena Public Library is the information center for its community and encourages the free expression of ideas essential to an informed citizenry. To accomplish this role, the first objective of the Library is to serve as an active resource for learning, studying and contemplating ideas. This objective is evidenced by, but not limited to, the basic functions of libraries in checking out books and other material as well as the offering of programs and services which advance the knowledge and experience of the citizens we serve. The offering of meeting room space in our libraries is one of many methods used to foster greater free expression and free access to ideas representing all points of view on all subjects.

General Policies Guiding the Use of Library Facilities

It is of the utmost importance that groups and individuals who use the meeting rooms understand and acknowledge that they are the guests of the department, that they are able to use the facilities at the discretion of the management of the department, and that their use of the facilities reflects that understanding. The fact that a group or organization is granted permission to meet in the Library in no way constitutes endorsement by the City of the policies or beliefs of that group or organization. All rules and regulations not contained in this document, which are in the City Charter, must be adhered to. Copies of the rules and regulations in the Charter are available in the City Clerk's office.

1. City-authorized staff may enter and remain in a meeting room at any time in performance of duties.
2. Activities for minors must be supervised by responsible adults.
3. No person may be denied access to a meeting unless the permittee has paid the established fee for the exclusive use of the room.
4. Authorization for library facilities and meeting room use is limited to the furniture and equipment assigned to that facility or room; and the placement of the furniture and equipment cannot be moved.
5. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited in public facilities.
6. Smoking is prohibited in public facilities.

Meeting Room User Responsibilities

All persons wishing to use library facilities must agree in writing to abide by these policies.

1. It is the responsibility of the person signing as authorized representative of the group to remain on the premises throughout the period for which it is reserved, to ensure the safety and security of attendees and the library facility and to further ensure that attendees observe the Policies Governing the Public Use of Library Facilities and the Library's Standards of Behavior.
2. Groups agree to restore area to original clean condition and agree to pay for any and all damages to library property while property is being used by applicant
3. Groups are required to vacate their reserved facilities on or before the time specified on the permit.
4. Groups may not store supplies or equipment in library facility.

Staff Assistance

1. Authorization for library facilities use does not include the use of staff time other than to

- provide access to the facility and the standard room arrangement.
2. Staff assistance, other than the above, must be requested at the time of the permit and requires a fee as outlined in the City's Fee Schedule.
 3. Only those arrangements for staff assistance approved and paid for in advance will be available on the date of the event.
 4. Groups placing demands on staff time the day of a scheduled event which services were not requested or paid for in advance, will be billed.

Revocation and Refusal of Authorization for Use

There may be times when the use of our facilities for meeting room purposes is in conflict with the more basic role of the library and/or the activities of the meeting room users negatively impact normal library operations. In such rare instances of conflict, the privilege of using library facilities and meeting rooms will be revoked for the remainder of a reservation year. The following criteria will be used to determine whether the use is detrimental to normal library operations:

1. Whether the planned meeting is conducted in a noisy, disorderly or inflammatory manner as opposed to a neat, orderly and courteous manner.
2. Whether the planned meeting is so confrontational in nature (e.g., through the use of "fighting words" or group chanting) that it is likely to embroil other groups or the general public in open conflict; thereby impacting normal library operations.
3. Whether the planned size or location of the meeting threatens the personal safety of the public, library patrons or staff in that it may block the flow of traffic or create a hazardous degree of congestion.
4. Whether the manner of conducting the meeting threatens to:
 - a. Interfere with the conduct of business or the customary uses of the Library, either by its form, size, location or timing;
 - b. Impede the movement of library patrons; or
 - c. Block access to other library facilities.
5. Whether the activities of the meeting room users prevent library staff from maintaining the building's security.
6. Whether the activities of the meeting room users deter public desk staff from their primary obligation of providing library services.
7. Whether the conduct of individuals attending the meeting creates a disturbance for other library users.
8. Whether the parking demands of the meeting room users places a burden on or disruption to neighborhood residents; or the users of the Donald R. Wright Auditorium do not adhere to their off-site parking plan.
9. Whether meeting room users abide by the policies governing the meeting rooms.
