CITY OF PASADENA

PROCLAMATION

Whereas Public Health Week is an annual, nationwide event celebrated during the first week of April that both highlights the vital role of public health in our challenging and changing world, and increases awareness of particular health issues affecting communities and how to access the variety of options available in the health care system; and

Whereas for 125 years, the City of Pasadena Public Health Department has been committed to promoting quality of life and healthy environments for its citizens, and is responsible for protecting and improving the health of the Pasadena community through service, policy, system, and environmental change; and

Whereas the members of the greater Pasadena area benefit every day from the Public Health Department’s efforts, such as eating safely at restaurants, receiving vaccines that prevent diseases, and accessing health improvement resources; and

Whereas April 2-8, 2018 is National Public Health Week, which celebrates public health excellence with the goal of achieving the healthiest nation and changing the future together;

Now, Therefore I, Terry Tornek, Mayor of the City of Pasadena, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim the week of April 2-8, 2018 in Pasadena as

Public Health Week

and commend the Pasadena Public Health Department on the occasion of its 125th anniversary.

Mayor of the City of Pasadena
