

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

April 7, 2018

To the attendees of the
Young African American Women's Conference:

Best wishes for a rewarding and successful time as you attend the 15th Annual Young African American Women's Conference.

The Conference is designed to inspire, motivate and increase young women's awareness of the changes and challenges they will encounter on their journey through life, and the choices they will need to make to ensure their future success and wellbeing. Workshops will address topics such as graduating from high school and getting into college, managing and understanding personal finances, leadership skills, and living a healthy lifestyle.

I am delighted that you have chosen to convene at Pasadena City College, and confident that you will have a productive and successful event. Best wishes for an enjoyable time.

Sincerely,

TERRY TORNEK
Mayor
