

Supplemental Forms for Short-Term Rental Permit

WHAT IS A SHORT-TERM RENTAL? A short-term rental is a dwelling unit which is shared, in whole or in part, for transient occupancy for periods of up to 30 consecutive days as a way of generating rental income. Ordinance No. 7317 allows hosted and un-hosted short-term rentals, subject to limitations. A Short-Term Rental permit and remittance of transient occupancy tax (TOT) payments on a quarterly basis are required. Vacation rentals and properties where the property owner does not reside for a minimum of nine (9) months out of the year are not permitted to be used for the purpose of short-term renting.

WHAT ARE THE OPERATING STANDARDS FOR SHORT-TERM RENTALS?

A summary of the operating standards for short-term rentals is included in this application packet. For the full regulations, please refer to Ordinance No. 7317 or Section 17.50.296 of the Pasadena Municipal Code.

Operating Standards for Short-Term Rentals

TYPE 1: Hosted Short-Term Rental Permit

- Applicant must reside at the property for a minimum of 9 months per calendar year.
- Applicant must remain at the property during all guest stays.
- No limit on the number of stays per calendar year.
- In single-family properties, permit holder may short-term rent the primary dwelling plus one of the following:
 - (1) An accessory dwelling unit prior to January 1st, 2017 OR
 - (2) An accessory structure permitted prior to January 1st, 2017.
- In multi-family properties, including duplexes, permit holder may short-term rent their primary dwelling plus one additional unit only.

TYPE 2: Unhosted Short-Term Rental Permit

- Applicant must reside at the property for at least 9 months per calendar year.
- Applicant need not be present during guest stays but must retain a local contact person or property management company that is available 24 hours per day.
- Limit of 90 days of guest stays per calendar year.
- In single-family properties, permit holder may short-term rent the primary dwelling plus one of the following:
 - (1) An accessory dwelling unit permitted prior to January 1st, 2017 OR
 - (2) An accessory structure permitted prior to January 1st, 2017.
- In multi-family properties, including duplexes, permit holder may short-term rent their primary dwelling plus one additional unit only.

STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO ALL SHORT-TERM RENTALS (P.M.C. Section 17.50.296):

- A person/entity may have only one home-sharing property in the City (i.e. their primary residence).
- Short-term rentals cannot be used for any commercial parties or events.
- Accessory dwelling units permitted on or after January 1, 2017 are not eligible to conduct short-term rentals.
- PERMITS: A Short-Term Rental permit must be obtained and renewed annually.
- TOT TAX: Applicant required to remit Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) to the City on a quarterly basis. Permit holder is responsible for TOT tracking, documentation and fee submission.
- INSPECTION: A third-party inspection or self-certification is required prior to issuance of the permit to confirm that the space meets life/safety requirements.
- OCCUPANCY: A maximum of 2 guests per bedroom plus 2 additional guests are allowed.
- PARKING: Guests shall utilize off-street parking only.
- SIGNAGE: No signs can be posted advertising the short-term rental use or vacancies.
- NOISE/LITTER: Applicant must adhere to the City's Noise Ordinance and Litter Ordinance.
- HOA: Applicant is responsible for adhering to any applicable HOA and CC&R regulations and restrictions at all times. A city permit does not supercede HOA or CC&R regulations.
- LISTING: The Short-Term Rental permit number must be included in any listing or advertising of the property.
- NOTIFICATION: A completed Neighborhood Notice shall be mailed or delivered by the applicant to all properties abutting, directly and diagonally across the street, from the residence and to the HOA, if applicable. Notification in multi-family complexes is required to the HOA and all units which share a wall or floor with the short-term rental unit.
- ENFORCEMENT: Three (3) violations against the same property being used for short-term rental will result in the revocation of the home-sharing permit. Listing without a permit is considered a violation. Failure to include the Short-Term Rental permit number in a listing is also considered a violation.
